SUNDAY REFLECTION

Deacon Jonathan Ocampo

The Gospel message we learn today is: what it means to be sent by God. In our Gospel reading Jesus sends his disciples out to preach repentance. If we look back at last weekend's gospel, Jesus and his disciples were in Jesus' hometown where his own people had no respect for Jesus when he preached in the synagogue. To those in his hometown, Jesus was still just a local "nobody." This reality was not lost on Jesus as he was not able to do anything great for his hometown people.

This same reality was used by Jesus when he prepares his disciples to evangelize, telling them how they must go out to the people. First, they go two by two. The reason for that is because they are witnessing to what Jesus taught them. For a valid testimony in back in Jesus' time, two witnesses were needed. Upon seeing this, the people of the towns and villages would trust them from the start. In addition,

Jesus instructed them to go simply. They would take no food, sack, money, or a change of clothes. They were to stay where they were accepted but to leave where they were not welcomed or listened to. Imagine what this may have felt like for the disciples. They had nothing and were dependent on the people for whom they were preaching. They would not always be accepted, and if they were not accepted, they had nothing to fall back on. Still, they had faith and trusted Jesus, so they went off, preached repentance, chased out demons, and cured many who were sick.

Do you ever wonder how they could do this doing what they have never done before? They did not even have a safety net to fall back on! What does this mean for us today? We, as baptized Catholic Christians, are also sent, and here is the best news of all: God has blessed us in Christ. "In love God destined us for adoption to himself through Jesus Christ." This means we belong to God as daughters and sons, and God chose us in Jesus before the foundation of the world. This should not frighten us but lift us up to do that which we were made to do, spread the Good News to all corners of the world.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen.

HINTS IN WELCOMING A NEW PRIEST

1. Be patient with him. The stress of moving, the grief of leaving a familiar parish and the newness of it all might be a bit much for him. Be patient.
2. Don't beat a path to his door. Give him some time to unpack, get settled, finding all the bathrooms and getting the secretary's names straight. This might take a month or two, or longer...see #1.
3. Tell him your name and what you are involved with. Don't do this once or twice, but a number of times. Don't be offended if in six months or a year later he doesn't remember your name. He wants to. Really! So don't embarrass him, tell him again!
4. Make sure he has help moving in if he wants it. The parish secretary can help knowing if he needs help. Some priests would welcome help, others desire privacy. We are all different. A nice welcome basket is always thoughtful.
5. Let him change his mind! Sometimes a decision made early is rushed or made without fully understanding the situation. It might be necessary for him to change his mind. Give him some wiggle room.
6. Try not to compare him to your former pastor. This will not be fully possible of course, and he will struggle in comparing his previous parish to the present. Comparisons will only impede a relationship.
7. Tell him your story, the story of the parish, the traditions, and the important values of the parish. Every parish and tradition in a parish has a story behind it. These stories are important for him to know.
8. When he asks how something is the past or what the protocol is, refrain from telling him "Whatever you would like Father!" We generally want to keep things the way they are and not fix something that is not broken, so don't be afraid to tell him how things operate in the parish. Sometimes a new pastor makes changes without even knowing they have changed anything because no one told him.
9. Let him get to know you and the parish. Be sure to invite him to different parish events. Yes, he sees the bulletin and should know when something is happening but he might not know if he is really wanted.
10. Pray for him and let him know you are praying for him!

MANY BLESSINGS TO ALL WHO GIVE!

SHOULD I GO TO OCIA?

(Order Of Christian Initiation for Adults)

Adults who desire the Sacrament of Baptism, those who were baptized in another Christian tradition and who desire to become Catholic, and those who were baptized Catholic but never received Confirmation, are invited to participate in the OCIA classes, formerly known as RCIA.

Basically, any adult converting to the Church must go through OCIA, and this is a great blessing. That being said, no one is ever turned away because of their inability to complete a number of classes.

Classes at St. Michael begins on Wednesday, August 11th at 6:30pm and every Wednesday thereafter.

Applications are now being taken and are available at the church office or call the office or go to our website.

If you know of someone who desires this, please inform him or her of this program.

CANDLE STATUARY NOW IN FULL OPERATION AT ST. MICHAEL CHURCH

Candles are lit for prayer intentions. To "light a candle for someone" indicates one's intention to say a prayer for another person, and the candle symbolizes that prayer.

We kindly ask that you be considerate for those wanting to offer a candle who may be waiting in line behind you. Face masks and social distancing is still required at all times in the Church. Please use hand sanitizer provided before and after use.

Suggested Donation—$3.00 per candle.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER FOR JULY

Gracious God,
You sent your Son to proclaim the Good News, inspire us in faith and show us the way to be good stewards of Your abundant gifts.

In this month of July,
dedicated to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus, grant us the wisdom to recognize that through His gift of the Eucharist there is but one cup of covenant and communion with Christ and each other.

Through the Eucharist, give us the courage to be good stewards of Christ's presence to others in our words and our deeds.

And through your Spirit teach us to live,
no longer for ourselves,
but in Christ Jesus who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Amen
