SUNDAY REFLECTION

Gather the Sheep

By: Joshua Kapika

In today's readings there is a strong emphasis on shepherds. In the first reading Jeremiah speaks on behalf of God condemning those shepherds who caused the sheep to scatter. In the responsorial psalm, the Psalmist writes about the LORD as shepherd one who guides and cares for his flock. The second reading does not necessarily talk about shepherds, but it focuses on Christ as the head of the body the one who binds all together. Lastly, the Gospel itself talks about the encounter Jesus had with his disciples and how he sees them as sheep without a shepherd.

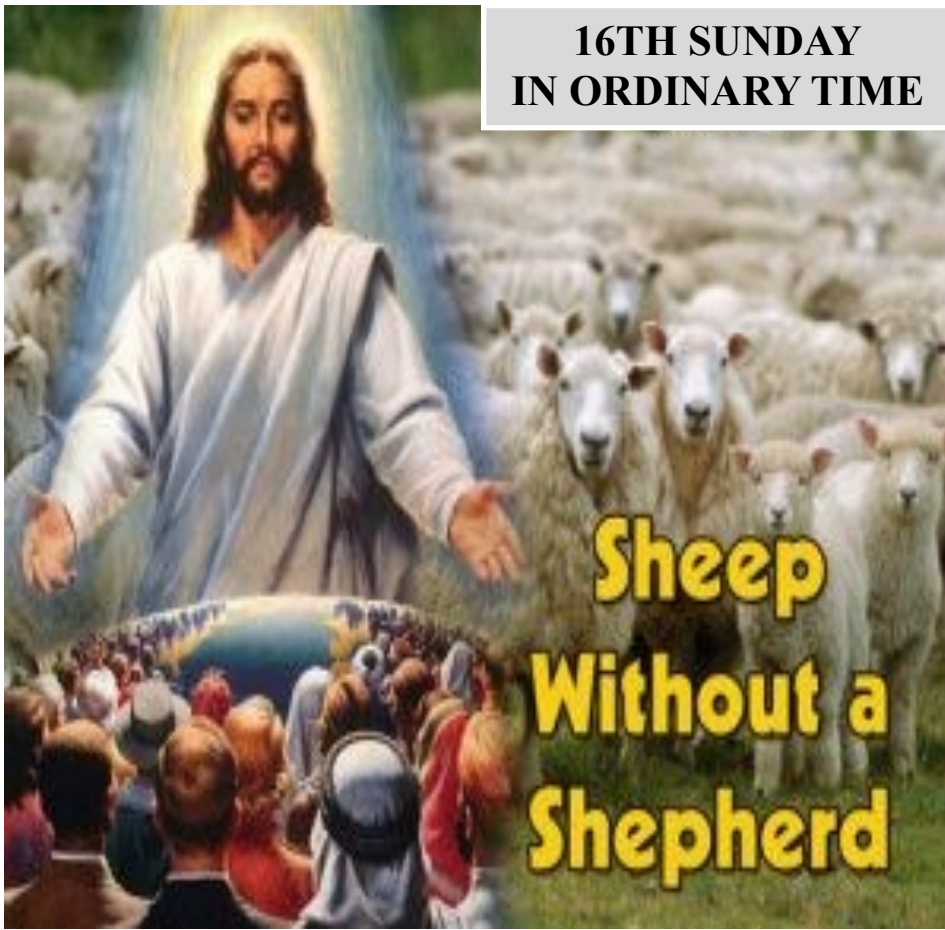

There are many times in today's society where we may seem to be a bunch of sheep without a shepherd. In a world that is so divided and torn in many ways, there is no doubt that there is a great need for direction. Like sheep who roam aimlessly throughout the fields many in this world go through life aimlessly searching for peace and happiness, safety and security but as the readings remind us, we already have a shepherd.

Jesus the shepherd, who continuously lays down his life for his sheep. Jesus the shepherd, who gathers those who are far and near. Jesus the shepherd, who nurtures and tends the flock whom he has gathered to himself. What many have failed to recognize is that Jesus is always doing his part. He is constantly searching for his sheep. He is constantly gathering the lost, the lonely, the broken, the faithful and the unfaithful. What we don't realize is that we are the ones who get in the way. We are the ones who fail to listen to him when he calls us.

As the gospel acclamation states, "My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me." John 10:27. Let us make every effort to hear the voice of Christ in our lives. Let us turn our ears to the Lord so that we may return to his fold and rest peacefully in his caring embrace.

16TH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

When he saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he began to teach them many things.

SHOULD I GO TO OCIA?

(Order Of Christian Initiation for Adults)

Adults who desire the Sacrament of Baptism, those who were baptized in another Christian tradition and who desire to become Catholic, and those who were baptized Catholic but never received Confirmation, are invited to participate in the OCIA classes, formerly known as RCIA.

Basically, any adult converting to the Church must go through OCIA, and this is a great blessing. That being said, no one is ever turned away because of their inability to complete a number of classes.

Classes at St. Michael begins Wednesday, August 11th at 6:30pm and every Wednesday thereafter.

Applications are now being taken and are available at the church office or call the office or go to our website.

If you know of someone who desires this, please inform him or her of this program.

Housing Crisis: Landlords Needed!

From the Office for Social Ministry

ALL INTERESTED ARE INVITED TO ATTEND A VIRTUAL INFORMATION SESSION on Landlord Engagement hosted by Scott Morishige, the Governor's Coordinator on Homelessness.

Date: Thursday, July 29, 2021

Time: 6:30 – 8:00 PM

Throughout the pandemic, scores of residents were furloughed or lost their jobs completely leaving many unable to pay their rent. Effective August 2021, the statewide eviction moratorium is set to end! Landlords deserve the rent owed to them and at the same time we must give our best effort to avoid a wave of displaced households!

It is critically important that we find ways to engage landlords.

More than 700 Emergency Housing Vouchers are being allocated to all counties throughout our state made available by HUD through the American Rescue Plan Act. These vouchers are specifically for households which are homeless, are at risk of becoming homeless or fleeing volatile circumstances (e.g. domestic violence, trafficking). These vouchers are being administered by the Counties and the Hawaii Public Housing Authority.

Additional vouchers are being made available through the following programs:

- The Oahu Housing Now program
- Rapid Rehousing
- Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers
- The Rent to Work program.

LANDLORD ENGAGEMENT is critically important if we want to ensure families and individuals have a safe roof over their heads and are able to sustain themselves. The vouchers mentioned above guarantee payment which gives some assurances to landlords during this time of financial uncertainty. The cooperation of landlords in every parish on every island is needed!

On Oahu, the Landlord Engagement Program (LEP) ensures that the landlord (or property manager) is supported by responding to complaints and concerns. Landlords have access to a damage mitigation fund through this program should a unit be damaged in any way. Additional 24/7 phone support is also available for both tenants and landlords.

For more information about Landlord Engagement, go to <https://homelessness.hawaii.gov/landlord-engagement/> or for details about the virtual session, contact Cheryl Bellisario directly at (808)586-0009. or email: cheryl.a.bellisario@hawaii.gov.
