This month, the book club group has chosen to read, The Gospel of Ruth, by Carolyn Custis James. The book vests every woman's life with kingdom purposes and frees us to embrace wholeheartedly God's calling, regardless of our circumstances or season of life.

This story of two women who have lost everything contains a profound message: God created women not to live in the shadowy margins of men or the past, but to emerge as courageous activists for his kingdom. Join us at Millie Hynes home at 2:00 PM on May 30. For more information, call 568-1140.

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works, and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

Scripture Class

Our Scripture Group meets after the coffee hour every Sunday in the rectory. New members are always welcome. For more information, call Mike Dellwo at 385-3522.

"What you do for the least, you do for me."

Help our homeless vets by making sleeping mats for them. Everyone can do something to help in the process. Please drop off plastic grocery bags in the brown bin located near the ramp door. These are used to make the mats. If you would like to help in the construction of the mats, contact Joanne Samuel.

Looking for a way to get involved with the parish?

We need your help with special events, coffee hours, funeral dinners, church cleaning or repair projects, etc. Please call Louise Andrews at 509-413-7186 to have your name put on a call list for when help is needed. Many hands make light work and it's fun to represent our parish. Thank you!

Please join your fellow parishioners for coffee and donuts following Mass
