The Halo Report

Theme 2019-2020:
"If We Live In The Spirit, Let Us Also Follow The Spirit."- Galatians 5:25

Saint Augustine Catholic School

1421 V Street NW, Washington, DC 20009

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Saint Augustine Catholic School has always wanted our children to grow into compassionate, faithful people who participate as responsible citizens. In times of crisis like the one we find ourselves in it is important to remember the Golden Rule of treating others as you want to be treated. Remember we are all equal and children of God. Remember Jesus loves all children. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cg6W76q6a2E>

Words of Encouragement from Father Pat

Dear Students,

I want to share a few thoughts with you as we see the number of peaceful protests and sometimes violent actions fill the news on a daily basis. First, I want to let you know that I am keeping you and your family in my prayers. I am praying that Jesus, the Good Shepherd:

Feeds You – Providing for you and your family's needs;

Leads You – Giving you and your parents the guidance and direction needed to help make the best decisions;

Protects You – From anything and everything that could bring you harm or heartbreak.

Every time I have walked into the school you have greeted me with the words: "May the Peace of the Lord be with you!". Keep doing this! I mean, keep offering and spreading this Peace first among your family and with all you meet. Let us also pray for all the protesters who are marching for justice. Doing justice means giving to someone what they deserve! People are marching because they deserve to have their rights and their lives to be respected; especially by our Law Enforcement (police) and our Courts (lawyers and judges). Let us pray that everyone in our society be treated with dignity and fairness because just like you and me, they deserve it. So, "May the Peace of the Lord be with YOU!" and with all of our brothers and sisters. May we all experience the peace that comes when justice is done. This is why the protesters say: "No Justice, No Peace!"

Archdiocese of Washington Update

As of today, the guidance and/or protocols of the District of Columbia regarding returning to school in the fall are unknown. It is our hope that by the end of July, we will established protocols for opening campuses and will communicate them with parents.
