Dear Sisters and Brothers in the Lord:

On All Souls Day, Pope Francis visited the Laurentino Cemetery in Rome. He went there to visit the graves of children who have died this past year and to celebrate Mass for All Souls. That Mass would have included the soul of any of our relatives and friends who have died this past year!

In reflecting on the importance of the day, Pope Francis said: "Today is a day to commemorate the past, a day to remember those who have walked before us, who have also accompanied us, have given us life. To remember, to commemorate. Remembrance is what makes a people strong, because it feels rooted in a journey, rooted in history, rooted in a people. Remembrance helps us understand that we are not alone, we are a people: a people with a history, with a past, with a life."

"...It is not easy to remember. We often struggle to turn our thoughts back to what has happened in my life, in my family, in my people.... Today is also a day of hope. Beauty awaits us. Remembrance and hope, the hopes of meeting each other, the hope of arriving where there is the Love that created us, where there is the Love that awaits us, a Father's love."

"And between remembrance and hope there is the third dimension, that of the path that we must and do take... These Beatitudes—meekness, poverty of spirit, justice, mercy, purity of heart—are the lights that accompany us so as not to lose our way... Let us ask the Lord today to give us the grace to never lose remembrance, never suppress remembrance of the person, remembrance of family, remembrance of people and to give us the grace of hope because hope is one of His gifts... Always look to the horizon and to hope... the lights that will accompany us on the path so as not to make mistakes, and thus to arrive where we are awaited with so much love."

Throughout this month we have been a people of remembrance—recalling loved ones who have journeyed ahead of us and visiting the places where they rest in the Lord. We have asked the Lord to bless and keep them in His Heart—just as much as they are within our own. WE continue to hope that they shall know the Joy of Resurrection in the Lord and that together we shall stand before the Throne of the Lamb of Redemption. So, whenever or wherever you visit your memories of loved ones, may the Lord of Life bring you the assurance of one day coming to know Him just as you are known.

Peace be with you, Monsignor

DESDE EL PASTOR

Queridas Hermanas y Hermanos en el Señor:

En el Día de los Difuntos, el papa Francisco visitó el cementerio de Laentino en Roma. Fue allí para visitar las tumbas de niños que murieron el año pasado y para celebrar la misa para todas las almas. ¡Esa Misa hubiera incluido el alma de cualquiera de nuestros familiares y amigos que murieron el año pasado!

Al reflexionar sobre la importancia del día, el Papa Francisco dijo: "Hoy es un día para conmemorar el pasado, un día para recordar a los que caminaron antes que nosotros, que también nos acompañaron, nos han dado vida. Para recordar, para conmemorar. El recuerdo es lo que hace que un pueblo sea fuerte, porque se siente enraizado en un viaje, enraizado en la historia, enraizado en un pueblo. El recuerdo nos ayuda a comprender que no estamos solos, que somos un pueblo: un pueblo con una historia, un pasado, una vida.

"... No es fácil de recordar. A menudo luchamos para volver nuestros pensamientos a lo que ha sucedido en mi vida, en mi familia, en mi gente ... Hoy también es un día de esperanza. La belleza nos espera. El recuerdo y la esperanza, los saltos del encuentro, la esperanza de llegar a donde está el Amor que nos creó, donde está el Amor que nos espera, el amor de un Padre.

"Y entre el recuerdo y la esperanza está la tercera dimensión, la del camino que debemos y tomamos ... Estas Bienaventuranzas (mansedumbre, pobreza de espíritu, justicia, misericordia, pureza de corazón) son las luces que nos acompañan para no perdamos el camino ... Pidamos al Señor hoy que nos dé la gracia de no perder nunca el recuerdo, nunca reprimir el recuerdo de la persona, el recuerdo de la familia, el recuerdo de las personas y que nos dé la gracia de la esperanza porque la esperanza es uno de Sus dones ... "Mira siempre hacia el horizonte y espera ... las luces que nos acompañarán en el camino para no cometer errores, y así llegar a donde nos esperan con tanto amor".

A lo largo de este mes, hemos sido un pueblo de recuerdo, recordando a los seres queridos que han viajado por delante y visitando los lugares donde descansan en el Señor. Le hemos pedido al Señor que los bendiga y los guarde en su corazón, tanto como lo son dentro de los nuestros. Continuamos esperando que conozcan la Alegría de la Resurrección en el Señor y que juntos estemos ante el Trono del Cordero de la Redención. Entonces, cuando sea o donde sea que visite sus recuerdos de seres queridos, que el Señor de la Vida le brinde la seguridad de que algún día llegará a conocerlo tal como es conocido.

La paz sea contigo, Monseñor
