Sacrament of Reconciliation: One half hour before each weekend Mass or anytime by appointment

This Weekend We...we find Jesus teaching in the synagogue. The people were listening quite intently and were astonished by the teachings. They said: “Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him?” Then they went on to say: “Is he not the carpenter, the Son of Mary?” It seems that they knew him—but after hearing him preach they really didn’t know him. However, they took offense and therefore his own kin, his own people, did not accept him. Are we like these people at times? Do we tend to not accept those who stand up, those who come forth? Are we afraid to come forth because we fear that we will not be accepted—we will not be heard? We do not wish for our parish traditions to slip away, perhaps it is time to step forth. Dare we launch out into the deep? Dare we step forth? Continued Summer Blessings!
