Sacrament of Reconciliation

for Ss. Joseph and Boniface: One half hour before each weekend Mass or by appointment

Wednesday was the 18th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attacks. As we look back on that day and remember the tragic things that happened, we are also reminded of some of the good things. People whose lives were spared because they did not go to work that day because of various circumstances; emergency workers displaying heroic virtue and willing to give up their lives to save others; the nation united for a time; people turning to the Lord in prayer. One of the best ways we can honor those who lost their lives on that day is to not only pray for them and their families, but also to remember how such a tragic event caused heroic virtue, unification, and a return to prayer. This day may we offer all those who lost their lives up to God in prayer and ask Him to remind us of the good things that can come out of tragedy not only one like 9/11, but also those in our everyday lives. Continued Blessings in Ordinary Time!
