So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

You are cordially invited to join the students, faculty, and staff of Wyoming Catholic College on Friday, April 6th, for the fourth and final presentation in this year's Lecture Series: "Adrift on a Windy Ocean: Sounding the Depths of Noise in Contemporary Society." In it, Dr. William Brownsberger, Academic Dean and Professor of Theology at Conception Seminary College, will speak on the value of silence in modern society. Dr. Brownsberger has written and lectured extensively on the "significance of silence" in modernity, and his essay, "Silence," was a key text in the College's "Symposium on Silence and Sacred Space in the Modern World." The event will be held in The Fremont Room of The Inn at Lander (260 Grandview Drive) and will begin at 7:00PM, with a reception to follow.

CCD Needs:

The atrium (pre-K CCD class) is looking for some items, including plain white hand towels and some furnishings. Coffee or end tables are often just the right size for our little ones and their work, so if you have a lovely, wooden, sturdy little table that is in good shape, we will gladly put it to good use. Wooden child-sized chairs and small book shelves would also be wonderful! Please contact Erin at ewashut@gmail.com or call the parish office 332-4952.

All parishioners are cordially invited this week to Tenebrae or the "Office of Darkness," a special form of Matins and Lauds sung only during the Holy Triduum. It is a hauntingly beautiful ceremony made up of psalms and readings, with gradually extinguished candles. There will be two (different) Tenebrae services: Wednesday night at 7:00 pm and Friday night at 7:00 pm. The WCC Choir will be singing Allegri's Miserere, a masterpiece of sacred choral music, on both nights as part of the service.

Sprout's Greenhouse is once again growing tomato plants for World Youth Day! This year is a medium red slicing patio tomato variety with tree pot and cage for $25 each (prepay to reserve until sold out). See the WYD booth at the Garden Expo at the LVHS Field house on Sat., April 14, 9-3.
