A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Third Sunday of Easter

An underlying lesson from all three readings this weekend is that the Risen Christ has wiped away our sins, not only for individuals, but throughout the world and its history. The terrible power of sin has now been reversed and our coming to perfection through the love of God is part of the Easter experience. As stewards of God's love we are called to participate in Christ's redemptive activity. The steward questions for us are many; How do we resist injustice at home or in the workplace? How do we confront violence in our language and attitudes? How do we bring Christ to others?

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

To: Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Monthly Explanation of the Mass

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

The Archdiocese is truly blessed by the service of many holy and dedicated priests, especially our retired priests, who have served our Archdiocese so faithfully. We currently have over fifty retired priests, many who continue to serve in our archdioceses in many ways.

The annual retirement collection on Good Shepherd Sunday, April 24-25, 2021, is used to support the medical and retirement expenses of these priests.

Your participation in this collection is a way to say “thank you” to our retired Archdiocesan priests for their many years of service to us, the Church of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. I assure you that your support will benefit the priests for many years to come.

Please join me daily in prayer for vocations to the priesthood that others may follow in their footsteps to give their lives to be good shepherds in leading the flock of Christ.

With gratitude for your generosity and wishing you God’s blessings in this Easter Season, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans

The Presence of Christ in the Word

- The proclamation of God’s Word at Mass is central to our Eucharistic celebration: “The Church is nourished spiritually at the twofold table of God’s word and of the Eucharist... The celebration of Mass in which the Word is heard and the Eucharist is offered and received forms but one single act of divine worship” (Introduction to the Lectionary, 10).
- When the Scripture readings are proclaimed, it is Jesus Christ himself who speaks to us and invites us into dialogue with Him. The Gospel is the high point of the readings – everyone stands (symbolizing the resurrection) and sings the Alleluia (except during Lent), greeting and welcoming Christ who is present with us. God speaks to the Church, the community at large, and to the individual person. Mass is the privileged place where God speaks to us!
- The Church encourages us to prepare for Mass by praying with the Sunday readings throughout the week, so that God’s Word might grow and live within us more deeply – thus enabling us to know his voice and hear Him more clearly at Mass and in our daily lives.

Please pray for: Fr. Michael Roberson, Sr. Marlene, MSC, Sr. Mary Consuela, MSC, Sr. Cynthia Knowles, MSC, Nancy Schaubhut, Russell Richardson, Sr., Faye Ernest, Noah Bracey, Matthew Bracey, Jane and Bill Bracey, Donovan Fincher, Lynn E.
