A Stewardship Moment

In today's Gospel reading we hear Jesus referring to himself as "the good shepherd." His sheep know him, trust him, listen to him and follow him; having faith that no harm will come to them as long as they stay close to him. We reaffirmed our faith in Christ when we renewed our baptismal promises at Easter. As stewards of our relationship with Jesus Christ, are we, like sheep, willing to listen to Jesus, follow him, trust him?

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

To all Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans,

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

May the peace and joy of this Easter remain in your hearts.

On April 9, I had the honor of welcoming the statue, “Angles Unawares” to New Orleans. The sculpture, cast in bronze and weighing nearly four tons, is on a tour of American cities before going on permanent display at Catholic University of America. I personally invite you to come and view the statue and find yourself in the images it portrays while it is on temporary display at Notre Dame Seminary.

It is a replica of a statue commissioned by Pope Francis for the World Day of Migrants and Refugees in 2019 and on permanent display at the Vatican. I had the opportunity to see the original the last time I was in Rome and the images are powerful.

The statue shows a 20-foot-long boat crowded with migrants and refugees from various lands. Among the 140 sculpted faces are Italians and Germans seeking a better life in a new country; Irish immigrants escaping the 19th century Potato Famine; Africans who were forced onto slave ships; Vietnamese boat people fleeing a Marxist regime; a Cherokee on the Trail of Tears; Jews scarred by the Holocaust; Syrians seeking a more peaceful home than their homeland, and many others. All figures and faces are from photos of real people or modeled in-studio. Even the Holy Family is in the crowd, identifiable only by St. Joseph’s toolbox. Above the figures, stretching 11 feet high, are the wings of an angel meant to symbolize Hebrews 11:2: “Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.”

Once again, I invite you to visit the statue on the front yard of Notre Dame Seminary, 2901 S. Carrollton Ave. in New Orleans any time between now and May 21 when it will depart for the next city on its national tour.

Wishing you God’s blessing, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans
