SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

A Stewardship Moment

Sixth Sunday of Easter

In today's Gospel, Jesus commands his disciples, whom he calls "friends," to love one another as he loves them. Jesus uses the word "love" as a verb or a noun nine times. He also employs the word "command" or "commandment" five times. His command to love one another is explicit. Those who understand the depth of Christ's love for us have reason to be joyful. We are called to be stewards of this loving friendship; to love one another as Jesus loves us. Do we give serious attention to what this love requires of us? What is the price of this friendship with the Lord? Are we willing to pay this price to keep Christ's friendship?

Pope Francis' May Prayer: Let us pray that those in charge of finance will work with governments to regulate the financial sphere and protect citizens from its dangers.

Notre Dame Seminary Survey: Notre Dame Seminary requests your assistance as they conduct a survey of the people of the Archdiocese of New Orleans to help identify the challenges that local parishes are facing so that they can ensure that the formation programs at Notre Dame Seminary are properly preparing priests and lay people to serve parishes. Please take a moment to complete a brief online survey at www.nds.edu/survet. The survey will remain alive until May 23, 2021. Thank you!

Thoughts on Mary

This woman of faith, Mary of Nazareth, the Mother of God, has been given to us as a model in our pilgrimage of faith. For, like us, she walked in shadows and hoped for things unseen. She knew the contradiction of our earthly life. This is the woman of history and destiny who inspires us today, the woman who speaks of femininity, human dignity and love, and who is the greatest expression of total consecration to Jesus Christ.

Pope John Paul II
