A letter from the Pastor

My dear People at
Blessed Seelos Parish:

Today's Gospel readings in our parish for cycles A and C, are either the resurrection of Lazarus or the woman caught in adultery. This is so because we have seven members of our community who will be baptized this Easter, and the Church wants us to use cycle A with them. Therefore, those of you going to the 4pm Mass, will be hearing these special readings instead of the account of the woman caught in adultery found in Luke's Gospel. Regardless of what readings you hear this weekend, the message can be received as being the same: Our God restores lives! Whether that means restoring Lazarus to physical life or the woman in Luke's Gospel to public life, there is a sense that both were given a new opportunity in life. It is always like that with our God. Today as we continue our Lenten journey, realize how God is also giving you an opportunity to have a new life in Him. Let's not waste so many opportunities the Lord gives us since we are only on this earth once.

Hoy las lecturas del evangelio para nuestra parroquia están tomadas del ciclo A y C, o sea la resurrección de Lázaro, o la mujer sorprendida en adulterio. Esto es así debido a que tenemos siete miembros de nuestra comunidad que van a ser bautizados esta Pascua, y la Iglesia quiere que usemos el ciclo A con ellos. Por eso, los que vayan a misa de 4pm, van a escuchar las lecturas especiales en vez de la versión de la mujer sorprendida en adulterio en el evangelio de San Lucas. Independientemente de que lecturas escuchen este fin de semana, el mensaje puede ser el mismo: ¡Nuestro Dios restaura vidas! Ya sea restaurarle la vida física a Lázaro o la vida pública a la mujer adúltera, los dos tuvieron la oportunidad de tener una nueva vida restaurada. Siempre es así con nuestro Dios. Hoy continuamos nuestra jornada de Cuaresma, dándonos cuenta que Dios nos ofrece a nosotros también la oportunidad de una nueva vida en Él. No perdamos las oportunidades que Dios nos da, ya que solo pasamos por esta tierra una vez.

Fr. José Ignacio
