A letter from the Pastor

My dear People at
Blessed Seelos Parish:

In the Gospel today, Jesus sends seventy-two of his disciples two by two to prepare his arrival to the different places that he intends to visit. This Gospel is significant for many reasons. Let me give you three of those reasons: 1) We always think of Jesus' ministry in a limited way, as if it was only to the twelve apostles. The Gospels give us plenty of evidence that Jesus dealt with many people. His crowds were huge. Take last Sunday's Gospel and how he asked to have a crowd of 5,000 men, without counting women and children, to sit in groups of 50! Think of the 500 plus people that the Gospel says saw him alive again after the resurrection, and think today of the 72 disciples being sent to do his work. 2) He never sent people alone. Working two by two was important to him. To work in companionship and togetherness is critical for Christians. 3) Jesus relied on his disciples to do his work. Even he, being the Son of God, did not feel he had to do everything by himself. There are many lessons for us to learn in this Gospel!

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús manda a setenta y dos de sus discípulos a preparar su llegada a los diferentes lugares donde iba a predicar. Este evangelio es muy importante en muchas maneras y por muchas razones. Déjenme darles tres: 1) Siempre pensamos que Jesús solo se limitaba en su ministerio a los doce apóstoles. Sin embargo, el evangelio nos da muchas muestras que Jesús trabajaba con mucha gente. Sus congregaciones eran enormes. ¡Por ejemplo, el domingo pasado hablábamos de cómo le pidió a una multitud de 5,000 hombres, sin contar mujeres y niños, a que se sentaran en grupos de 50! Piensen en las más de 500 personas que nos dice el evangelio que lo vieron vivo después de su Resurrección. Hoy vemos que manda a 72 discípulos para hacer su trabajo. 2) Jesús nunca mandaba a gente a que trabajaran solos. El ser mandados de dos en dos es significativo. El poder trabajar en unidad es muy importante para los cristianos. 3) Jesús recaía en sus discípulos para hacer su labor. Aun él, siendo el Hijo de Dios, no pensaba que podía hacerlo todo solo. ¡Tenemos muchas lecciones que aprender en este evangelio!
