A letter from the Pastor

My dear People at
Blessed Seelos Parish:

The Gospel contains a beautiful and equally threatening parable. A scholar of the law asks Jesus a question, meant more as a beginning of a discussion than a simple request for information. Jesus, in his usual manner, answers a question with a question. The man knows well the dictates of the Law and responds correctly. According to the Book of Leviticus: 19:18, loving one's neighbor is a sacred responsibility of the faithful Jewish person. So, to extend the discussion and perhaps get the upper hand, the scholar asks the obvious question and Jesus takes it out of the scholar's hand and lays it on his heart. A foreigner becomes the hero by placing himself in the vulnerable position of not being anybody's neighbor. The beaten man sets up the tension. The two religious figures, who do not tend to the man, heighten the heroism of the despised Samaritan. Jesus is telling this story to move from the Law to the Good News. The Good Samaritan is the great parable that ushers that invitation to all of us!

El evangelio de hoy contiene una bella y retante parábola. Un estudioso de la ley hace una pregunta, que suena más como el comienzo de una discusión que otra cosa. Jesús le contesta con otra pregunta, como era su costumbre. Este hombre sabía bien la ley judía y responde correctamente. En Levítico 19, 18 el amar al prójimo es una responsabilidad sagrada del judío fiel. Así que el estudioso hace otra pregunta lógica, y Jesús saca esta pregunta de las manos del estudioso y la pone en su corazón. Un extranjero se convierte en el héroe al ponerse en una posición vulnerable al no ser prójimo de nadie. El hombre golpeado crea la tensión de la parábola. Las dos figuras religiosas, que no atienden al malherido, aumentan el heroísmo del despreciado samaritano. Jesús cuenta esta historia para movernos de la Ley a la Buena Nueva. ¡El Buen Samaritano es la gran parábola de Jesús que nos hace esa invitación!

Fr. José Ignacio
