A letter from the Pastor

My dear People at
Blessed Seelos Parish:

Today we hear the very familiar Martha and Mary Gospel. The Gospel is a rather cute little story, but within it lie some very important features of God and what is expected by God in our response. Jesus is welcomed. Martha is doing the practical things of getting a proper meal ready for Jesus, the prophet. Mary is doing nothing except listening. Martha complains about the impracticality of her sister. Jesus replies with something simple and important. End of story. This is not a family dispute, a sibling rivalry, but a call to a radical way of living. We so easily listen to what we want to hear. What Jesus is saying in all the Gospels is not exactly all we want to hear. We would rather justify ourselves by listening to our ways and doing our thing, like Martha in her kitchen. Don't eliminate the verses of the Gospel you find inconvenient to you. You may end up with a very short Gospel!

Hoy escuchamos el conocido evangelio de Marta y María. Es una linda historia en la vida de Jesús, pero dentro de este relato hay una gran verdad de lo que Dios espera de nosotros. Jesús es bienvenido. Marta hace el trabajo práctico de preparar la cena para el Señor. María no hace nada, solo escucha. Marta se queja de su hermana. Jesús responde de una manera simple e importante. Fin de la historia. Esto no es una pugna familiar, una rivalidad entre hermanas, sino un llamado a una manera radical de vivir la vida. Escuchamos siempre lo que nos gusta o nos conviene. Lo que Jesús nos dice hoy es que el Evangelio muchas veces no es exactamente lo que queremos oír. Preferimos justificarnos en nuestros propios caminos y deseos, como Marta en su cocina. No eliminen los versículos del Evangelio que encuentren inconvenientes. ¡Terminarían con un Evangelio muy corto!

Fr. José Ignacio
