A letter from the Pastor

My dear People at
Blessed Seelos Parish:

In today's gospel reading the Lord introduces the parable of the rich farmer with a remark that is particularly appropriate for our society: ...though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions. In our society, having is equated with being and having more is interpreted as being more. The reverse side of this coin is that having less is interpreted as being less. The parable itself offers two points worthy of consideration. The first point is the rich man's self-centeredness. The wealth resulting from his abundant harvest will be enjoyed by him alone. We cannot be like that. We need to be willing to share with others the benefits of that crop. The other point in the parable is the abundance itself. The Lord refers to us as God's field. The Church is God's field and it has been yielding harvests in the course of the years. We should all be part of that harvest and contributing to the richness of the Church.

En el evangelio de hoy vemos al agricultor rico, y el Señor Jesús presenta la parábola con estas palabras: ...aunque uno sea rico, nuestra vida no debe consistir en nuestras posesiones materiales. En nuestra sociedad, el tener es equivalente al ser, y el tener más quiere decir ser más. Lo opuesto es también cierto: el tener menos es ser menos. La parábola de Jesús nos ofrece dos puntos para considerar: El primero es el egoísmo del rico. La riqueza resultante de su abundante cosecha solo la va a disfrutar él mismo. No podemos ser así. Tenemos que estar dispuestos a compartir con otros los beneficios de nuestra cosecha. El segundo punto, tiene que ver con la abundancia en sí. El Señor se refiere a nosotros como el campo de Dios. La Iglesia es el campo de Dios y ha estado dando frutos por muchos siglos. Todos debemos ser parte de esa cosecha y contribuir a la riqueza de la Iglesia.
