A letter from the Pastor

My dear People at
Blessed Seelos Parish:

They say there are two kinds of people, those who think there are two kinds of people and those who don't. That's just a joke. Read it again and eventually you will get it. It means that using such redundancy, proves the point. I have always felt it gives us a good insight about people and how to understand them. For example, my favorite singer says that he divides people in two kinds: Those who bring peace, and those who take it away. Jesus in the Gospel today tells us: When you have done all you have been commanded, say, 'We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.' In the Christian life, we can divide people in two as well: Those who came to be served, and those who serve. Obviously, Jesus reminds us that we should be on the side of those who serve. It would be a good examination of conscience every day to check where did we fall on that line scale. Read the life of Blessed Seelos. He was definitely on the side of those who came to serve.

Dicen que hay dos tipos de personas, los que piensan que hay dos tipos de personas y los que no. Eso es un chiste. Léelo otra vez y seguro que eventualmente lo entiendas. Quiere decir que el usar la redundancia prueba el punto. Siempre he pensado que esto nos da un buen entendimiento de las personas. Por ejemplo, mi cantante favorito le gusta decir que él cataloga las personas en dos grupos: Los que nos traen paz, y los que nos la quitan. Jesús en el evangelio de hoy nos dice: Cuando hayan hecho todo lo que se les ha encomendado, digan, "Somos siervos inútiles; solo hemos hecho lo que se nos ha encomendado." En la vida cristiana, podemos dividir las personas en dos grupos también: Los que vinieron a ser servidos, y los que vinieron a servir. Obviamente, Jesús nos recuerda que debemos estar en el grupo de los que vinieron a servir. Sería un excelente examen de consciencia cada día ver donde caemos en esta escala. Lean el ejemplo del Beato Seelos. Definitivamente él estaba en el lado de los que vinieron a servir.
