Content of Course of Studies to Obtain a California Master Catechist Certificate and Catechist Certificate

INTRODUCTION

As you received Christ Jesus the Lord,
Now live your lives in him,
Be rooted in him and built up on him,
Held firm by the faith you have been taught
And overflowing with thanksgiving.
(Col: 2:6-7)

These words will hopefully find a nesting place in the lives of every catechetical minister. Competent ministers of the Word recognize their responsibility to be grounded in a spirituality that roots them in the heart and mind of Christ. This personal relationship of the human person with the living God is central to effective ministry. In fact the National Directory for Catechesis states that Jesus Christ is the energizing center of evangelization and the heart of catechesis.

When we reflect on the Gospels, it is clear that Jesus had a pattern of prayer and spirituality in his life. This pattern and rhythm of prayer nurtured and was nurtured by his mission and ministry. We see him moving apart to enter into silence and solitude. He chose to go to lonely places to be alone and at times he spent the whole night in prayer. He listened, he discerned, he spoke to his Father in secret and reached out to attend to the varied needs and hopes encountered in his travels. He was truly a contemplative in action.

Catechists and leaders in this important ministry of sharing Good News would do well to mirror Jesus' commitment to pause, to pray, and to reflect. The process of thrusting lives into the rich soil of God's love and compassion brings freedom from fear and gives the courage to go on in spite of the struggles that are inevitable along the way.

It is in the context of this rootedness and connection to the source of life that catechists and catechetical leaders find the strength to go forth and share the richness of their Catholic faith story with all of its rituals, beliefs and spiritual traditions. Weaving contemplation and action they discover God in all of life and lead others into a like experience of God 'with us.'

The following goals and objectives specify the content of the course of studies for the California Catechist Certificate and the California Master Catechist Certificate. This certificate is for all the Arch (dioceses) in California for the training of catechists in catechesis at the parish, youth ministry and school levels.

In implementing them, it is important that the criteria for catechist formation found in the National Directory for Catechesis is adhered to and that the general andragogy of the formation of catechists be congruent with the pedagogy proper to the catechetical process. In other words, the catechetical process should be used in the formation of catechists (NDC #55E).

It is also important to remember that the presentation of content must be seen in relation to the entire formation of the catechist. As stated in the General Directory for Catechesis, "the deepest dimension refers to the very being of the catechist, to his or her human and Christian dimension. Formation, above all else, must help him or her to mature as a person, a believer and as an apostle." (GDC #238)

The presentation of content must also be seen in relationship to multicultural and multilingual settings.
