Standards of Conduct for Those Working With Children and Young People

The Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People calls for the adoption of standards of conduct for those working with children and young people. The Archdiocesan Policies and Procedures Regarding Child Abuse and Harassment contain general standards of conduct applicable to all those who work for the Church, whether in connection with adults and/or with children and young people. In view of the unique concerns relating to interaction with children and young people, the Archdiocesan Charter Implementation Committee suggested to me that it would be helpful to develop a set of standards that distinctively, and in detail, focus on those who work with these individuals. Following consultation with the Council of Priests and the Archdiocesan Independent Review Board, I approved the attached standards of conduct.

I would ask that you take steps to assure that these standards are disseminated to the applicable employees and volunteers for whom you are responsible. It is my hope that these standards will serve as helpful adjuncts to the Archdiocesan Policies and Procedures Regarding Child Abuse and Harassment, faculty/student handbooks, guides for religious education instructors, etc. The standards also will soon be posted on the Archdiocesan website.

THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SAN FRANCISCO

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT FOR THOSE WORKING WITH CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE

INTRODUCTION

The following Policy is applicable to all persons employed by or volunteering in any of the parishes and institutions of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. So that it is clear who must be aware of the contents of this document, the addressees include, but are not limited to, priests, religious (men and women), deacons, pastoral coordinators, school/program administrators, teachers, catechists, youth ministers, support staff, custodial staff, coaches, school program volunteers, seminarians serving internships, and lay theology students.

This Policy has been developed to help create a safe, appropriate and Christian environment for minors and their relationship with adults involved in Church ministry. These child-specific standards are designed to serve as a supplement to the sexual boundary guidelines/code of ethics applicable to all those involved in the ministry of the Catholic Church (whether with minors or adults) that are set forth in the Archdiocese of San Francisco's Policies and Procedures Regarding Child Abuse and Harassment.

GUIDELINES WITH REGARD TO MINISTRY WITH MINORS

1. Any and all involvement with minors (i.e., individuals under the age of 18) is to be approached from the premise that minors should always be viewed -- whether in a social or ministerial situation -- as restricted individuals; that is, they are not independent. Wherever they are and whatever they do is to be with the explicit knowledge and consent of their parents and guardians. They are subject to specific civil laws in the State of California, which may prohibit certain activities. They are not adults and are not permitted unfettered decisions.
2. Whenever possible (see Nos. 3, 4, 5 and 6 below) adults must avoid situations which will place them in a position to be alone with a minor in the rectory, school, or in a closed room. The only exception is the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
3. In meeting and/or pastoral counseling situations involving a minor, excluding Sacrament of Reconciliation, the presence or proximity of another adult is encouraged. However, in those situations where the presence of another adult is not usual or practical (e.g., piano lessons, disciplinary meeting with an administrator, etc.), another adult should be informed that the meeting is taking place. The meeting place should be accessible and visible, with the door where the meeting is taking place left ajar, unless there is a clear window built into the door.
4. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is to be celebrated in a place so designed for that purpose: reconciliation chapel or confessional.

5. An unaccompanied minor is allowed only in the professional section of the rectory or parish center, never in the living quarters. Minors age 16 and over are permitted to work in the rectory when there would normally be at least two adults present, i.e., over 21 years of age.
6. At least two adults are to be present when a group of minors engage in organized events or sports activities, save for unforeseen circumstances such as the sudden illness of the assistant coach (though in such cases attempts should be made to secure the presence of a parent of one of the team members).
7. Adults are to avoid being the only adult in a bathroom, shower room, locker room, or other dressing areas whenever minors are using such facilities.
8. Youth trips of any kind must have a minimum of two adult chaperones, at least one of whom should be of the same sex as the young people. Larger groups must have a least one adult chaperone for every eight minors.
9. While on trips or program activities, the adults, as well as the minors, may not use alcohol or controlled substances. However, with the approval of the pastor or principal, modest alcohol consumption by adult workers and parents of children is acceptable at events such as end-of-season team parties, etc.

While on youth trips, clergy or lay leaders are never to stay alone overnight in the same motel/hotel room with a minor or minors, with the exception of a lay leader staying in the same room with his/her own child.
11. The sacristy door is always to be open whenever minors are present within the sacristy.
12. Comments of a sexual nature are not to be made to any minor except in response to specific classroom or otherwise legitimate questions from a minor.

Topics or vocabulary, such as profanity, cursing, or vulgar humor, which could not comfortably be used in the presence of parish/school administrators, parents/guardians, or another adult, shall not be used in the presence of a minor/minors.
14. Adults are absolutely prohibited from serving or supplying alcohol, tobacco products, controlled substances, or pornographic or other inappropriate reading materials to minors
15. Audiovisual, Internet, music, and printed resources used in programs must be screened prior to use to ensure their appropriateness for the participants. It is never appropriate to use an "R"-rated movie, or movies rated with an even stronger designation, save for use of Archdiocesan-approved, age-appropriate films or film excerpts. Music lyrics should also be reviewed to ensure appropriateness.

16. Careful boundaries concerning physical contact with minors must be observed at all times and should only occur under public circumstances. Prudent discretion and respect must be shown before touching another person in any way. An adult should not assume that a child is comfortable with an adult-initiated hug or embrace, and, in any event, special care should be taken to avoid incidental contact, unintended or otherwise, with or in the vicinity of a child's genital areas. If the child initiates physical contact, such as a hug, an appropriate limited response is proper.
17. Adults must refrain from giving regular and/or expensive gifts to children and young people without prior approval from the parents or guardian and the pastor or administrator.
18. It is never appropriate to impose "secrecy" on children and young people vis-a-vis their parents, police, etc. (e.g. under threat of physical harm, "punishment by God", etc.).
19. Clear violations of these standards, as well as any sexual misconduct, must be reported immediately to the appropriate parish, Archdiocesan and/or civil authorities in accordance with civil law and Archdiocesan policy.

GUIDELINES WITH REGARD TO PASTORAL COUNSELING

1. Pastoral counseling must take place only in the professional portion of a rectory or parish facility, never in the living quarters.
2. Offices or classrooms used for pastoral counseling must have a window in the door, or the door is to be left ajar during the counseling session.
3. Another adult must be in close proximity during any counseling session.
4. Unless the subject matter precludes their presence and/or knowledge, parents or guardians of minors should be made aware of the counseling session.
5. A referral for professional assistance is encouraged if counseling is expected to extend beyond two or three sessions with a minor. Evaluation of the situation should be made with the parents or guardians.
6. The counselor is responsible to recognize any personal/physical attraction to or from a client. In such a situation, the client should be immediately referred to another qualified adult or licensed professional.
