Precious Blood and the New Covenant

On this solemnity we focus our attention on the Body and Blood of Christ. We listen to the story of the renewal of the old covenant, which Moses sealed by splashing the blood of animals on the altar of sacrifice, as well as on the people. Jesus, whose blood is the blood of the new covenant, shed that precious blood on the cross, saving us from sin and promising us everlasting life. Blood is the life source that courses through our bodies. The precious blood of Christ is the life source for our spirits. Today may we, like the psalmist, offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Lord, whose Body and Blood strengthen us to bring the Good News to everyone we meet.

Sts. Peter and Paul Building Anniversary

We are gathering historical material on Sts. Peter and Paul Church for the 50th anniversary of the dedication of the current church and rectory. If anyone has photographs from the April 6, 1986, Parish celebration of the Texas Sesquicentennial, or other events please contact Jeff Spencer.

Industry Fall Festival Raffle Donations

Parish members need to sign up after Mass or call to donate a prize for the Fall Festival Raffle Drawing. The deadline is Sunday, June 10. Please contact Jamin Swantner, Mable Meyers, or Georgianne Schmid to donate a prize.

Thoughts on Abortion from John Paul II

Saint John Paul II said the following about abortion and how it reduces the value all life:

“When society accepts the murder of unborn children as a legal right, then that society's attitude towards murder and inhumane crimes in general will in time, change. For example, child abuse in the United States has literally rocketed since abortion was legalized in 1973.

Conversely, United Nations figures show that Ireland has one of the lowest murder rates in the world. This is because Ireland has not become numbed by the legalized evil of abortion.

In a society where human life is cheapened by abortion, all weaker members of that society are threatened by the uncaring, anti-life mentality that abortion creates.”

Last week in the Republic of Ireland a referendum to overturn that country's abortion ban passed. The ban, known as the Eighth Amendment, granted an equal right to life to the mother and to the unborn. The vote allows the Irish Parliament to legislate an end to the Eighth Amendment. Please remember the Irish people, both born and not yet born, in your prayers.

Treasures from Our Tradition

The origins of today's solemnity lie in thirteenth-century Belgium. In those days, people seldom received Holy Communion, and never from the chalice. A nun in a troubled convent, Juliana of Liège, devoted her life to stirring up love for the Eucharist, lobbying for a feast day to honor the Blessed Sacrament with Masses and processions.

Juliana may have been inspired by the Ascension Day processions in nearby Bruges. Crusaders brought a treasure home to Bruges from Constantinople in 1204: a reliquary said to contain a cloth from Joseph of Arimathea with which he had helped prepare the body of Jesus for burial. The stain on the cloth was said to be the holy blood itself, and so the people of Bruges built a great basilica to house the relic. Bruges became a great center of pilgrimage because of this treasure, and the procession of the Holy Blood is still one of the greatest festivals in Belgium today. The bishop carries the relic through the narrow streets, and the people wear medieval costumes and act out scenes from the Bible.

Welcome David Montonati to the Parish Office

After some months, Fr. Tim and representatives from both parish Finance Councils have hired our new Business Manager. He is David Montonati, who lives with his wife Charlotte in Waller, Texas. David is a parishioner of St. Katherine Drexel in Hempstead. He comes to us with impeccable credentials having worked for 24 years at the Houston firm Fulbright & Jaworski LLP. A real plus is David's most pleasant nature and a real good sense of humor.
