Social Services Ministry Report

During the first six months of 2018, the Social Services Ministry of Sts. Peter and Paul Church helped 14 families through some tough and some desperate times.

Thank you, parishioners, for your continued support though the quarterly black bag collections.

Industry Fall Festival Raffle Tickets

Raffle tickets will be available after Mass Sunday at Immaculate Conception Church, or you can contact Gilbert Canik or Bernie Stephan. If you need additional tickets to sell or if you have money from tickets sales to turn in, please contact Gilbert or Bernie. The Fall Festival is Sunday, September 9, 2018.

Sts. Peter & Paul CCE Volunteers Needed

If you have been yearning to grow in your faith, and grow closer to the Lord, this maybe the opportunity you have been looking for. Our CCE program is in need of one experienced Teacher, on Wednesday evenings, and Aides, on both Wednesday evenings and Sunday Mornings. Serving our youth in this way, helps us to meet and see Christ in a whole new way - Through the eyes of our youth. If you are interested in serving in this way, contact Kimberly Story, DRE. Classes begin in the Fall; your new chapter with our Lord may begin there as well.

Knock and It Shall Be Opened to You - the Lighter Side

A pastor went out one Saturday to visit his church members. At one house it was obvious that someone was home, but nobody came to the door even though the pastor had knocked several times. Finally, the pastor took out his card and wrote "Revelations 3:20" on the back of it, and stuck it in the door.

Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me.

The next day, the card turned up in the collection plate. Below the pastor's message was the notation "Genesis 3:10".

I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Last week's Treasure mentioned the "Nuns of the Battlefield," religious sisters from several communities who served as nurses in the Civil War. Florence Nightingale had only instituted female nurses a decade before in the Crimean War, so the idea of women tending to wounded soldiers was extraordinary. The medical and sanitary conditions on the battlefields were appalling, and the sisters were nearly all teachers. Few had any medical training beyond what they had learned as youngsters in the family. Anti-Catholic prejudice was so deeply entrenched in America that sisters could not wear their habits in public. These sisters were the first, and people on both the Union and Confederate sides soon began to marvel at their bravery, efficiency, and respect for Protestant soldiers. More than six hundred sisters from twenty-one communities went to war, serving in wretched conditions. They were tough and single-minded, efficient and fearless.

After the war, sisters could appear in public everywhere in the reunited nation, and often received the praise and gratitude of grateful soldiers and family members on behalf of their sister nurses. An outdoor monument to the "Nuns of the Battlefield" stands in Washington at M Street and Rhode Island Avenue. The inscription reads: "They comforted the dying, nursed the wounded, carried hope to the imprisoned, and gave in His name a drink of water to the thirsty."

Obstacles in Our Faith Journey

The prophet Ezekiel, Saint Paul, and the Lord Jesus share something in common in today's scripture readings. They all experience obstacles to their ministry. Ezekiel is summoned to prophesy to the Israelites, who are "hard of face and obstinate of heart" (Ezekiel 2:4). Saint Paul recounts how he has been given a "thorn in the flesh" (2 Corinthians 12:7). The Lord Jesus is unable to perform many signs in his native place. The Gospel tells us that "He was amazed at their lack of faith" (Mark 6:6).

We too sometimes encounter obstacles as we travel along the journey of faith. So often we experience weakness on this journey. Let the words of the Lord to Saint Paul encourage us today: "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness" (2 Corinthians 12:9).
