We Are Called To Serve

For many weeks now, we have been celebrating the appearance of the divine presence in human form. As a child, he came to Mary and Joseph, was seen by the shepherds, and then by some wandering magi from the East. Today we celebrate another showing, later in time, to a group gathered at the Jordan River.

John hesitated to baptize Jesus, whom he recognized as "one mightier than I." But he did as Jesus asked, and the "Holy Spirit descended" and heaven's voice spoke to Jesus, "You are my beloved Son." Jesus was beginning his public life of teaching and service.

Soon he would start calling others to join him.

Peter was one of the first to be called by Jesus. In today's second reading, he announces the heart of the message, "peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all." Peter was called, and you and I are called to spread that message and to serve God's word.

How Long is the Christmas Season?

According to the liturgical calendar, the primary celebration of Christmas is an octave (eight days) starting with December 25 and ending on January 1 with the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God (which is a holy day of obligation). The Christmas season lasts a bit longer, though. If you go by the traditional "twelve days of Christmas," then it would take us to January 5, the eve of Epiphany (when the wise men visit the infant Jesus).

However, the current, official definition of its length, according to the Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and the Calendar: The Christmas season runs from Evening Prayer I of Christmas until the Sunday after Epiphany or after 6 January, inclusive. But when exactly does it end?

In the United States, the Epiphany is transferred to the first Sunday after January 1, which falls somewhere between January 2 and January 8. This year, Epiphany falls on Sunday, January 6, 2019. The means that the Baptism of the Lord will be celebrated on Sunday, January 13, 2019, ending the Christmas season. Beginning on Monday, January 14, the Church returns to Ordinary Time and you will see the familiar green vestments return.

Confirmation Retreat Next Weekend

The youth of Sts. Peter and Paul and Immaculate Conception churches will be going on a Confirmation Retreat next Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. Please remember them and the retreat team in your prayers.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Merry Christmas! Share that cheerful greeting with some folks today. They may wonder if you have had any Elvis sightings lately, attended Star Trekkie conventions, or were Cleopatra in a previous lifetime. Despite the skeptics, today is solidly within the Christmas season. In fact, in some strands of the Christian tradition it represents the clearest manifestation of the mystery of the Incarnation. On Christmas Day, for example, the Gospel reading is the Prologue of John's Gospel, which reveals the glory of Christ shining through our humanity precisely in his baptism.

At any rate, this is an ancient feast, celebrated first in Egypt sixteen centuries ago. More than most other ancient people, the Egyptians understood the life-giving properties of water. On this day, they drew water from the Nile, so central in the history of their people, and reserved it in honor. Many other places copied the custom, so that St. John Chrysostom wrote of people in Antioch gathering at midnight to collect flowing water into vessels they brought from home since "today there is a blessing on the water."

At home for dinner tonight, decorate the table with beautiful bowls of water and white candles, toast one another with goblets of sparkling water, and light a Christmas candle in the window one last time.
