Of Kings and Kingship

Americans have an uncomfortable relationship with kings. The American Revolution was fought for independence from King George, after all. Nonetheless, today every Catholic church around the world celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today's feast invites us to look beyond our national loyalties and rejoice in our primary identity. We are children of God in Jesus, Christ the King.

Our readings help us consider what it is like to belong to God's kingdom. The book of Samuel captures the deep longing of the Israelites for a king to shepherd them. Saint Paul reminds the Colossians that we belong to the kingdom of Christ, whose power he praises in a beautiful hymn. Finally, Luke's Gospel calls to mind the kind of king Jesus chooses to be—a suffering servant, a man for others. By sacrificing his life for us, Jesus throws open the gates of Paradise.

Bluebonnet ACTS Community Request

The Bluebonnet ACTS Core Team regularly sends out email requests for prayers. If you are not receiving these emails and you would like to, please send an email to bluebonnetactsprayers@gmail.com and the Team will update your email address for upcoming announcements in the ACTS community. If you have been receiving requests then no action is needed. The Bluebonnet ACTS Core Team thanks you for your assistance.

Thanksgiving

*Gratitude is the inward feeling of kindness received.
Thankfulness is the natural impulse to express that feeling.
Thanksgiving is the following of that impulse.*

West End Mission Meals Thank You

A big thank you for the following people who prepared, served, and delivered the West End Mission Meals on Saturday November 16: Pat Allee, Tomi Beth Drab, Stephanie Elizaldo, Raely Fitch, Coy & Libby Geistmann, Stacy Hejl, Betty Jozwiak, Cassie, Eddie, Layne, Levi & Luke Malinowski, Joann Reichle, Bernice Ripple, Bernie Stephan, and Cecilia & Neely Vasicek.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Today's solemnity, the final feast of the Church year, is a youngster as feasts go. In 1925, Pope Pius XI was distressed by global political upheaval and the de-Christianizing of society. That year was a "Holy Year," keyed to the sixteen hundredth anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, when the words "and of his kingdom there will be no end" were added to the Creed. The Pope explained that although most feasts had developed over many centuries, the Church sometimes provided a new feast to address new needs. He pointed to the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, showing Christ's love and compassion in a time when many people embraced a cold and gloomy spirituality. Originally on the last Sunday of October, in the late 1960s the solemnity of Christ the King was moved to the last Sunday of the year.

Fresh from baptism's waters, we are anointed with chrism "as Christ was anointed priest, prophet, and king." This feast is a key to our identity. On this feast, we recognize Christ as a king who breaks the usual mold of kingship, and who shapes his kingdom with our hands, our words, our deeds of love and service.
