Bellville Social Service Ministry Report

Unfortunately our local Social Service Ministry, which serves the people of Sts. Peter & Paul parish and the community of Bellville, has its badly needed quarterly collection scheduled for next Sunday on the heels of today's Archdiocese Black Bag Collection.

During the first six months of 2019, our local Social Service Ministry has helped 12 families. $2,909.32 was used to help pay expenses such as electric bills, rents, gas, and groceries to help these families through emergency situations.

Thank you for making this possible through our local Black Bag Collections.

We are blessed to have a Catholic radio station nearby. The Guadalupe Radio Network station in Houston is at 1430 on your AM radio. Listen to the station to find encouragement and to have a deeper understanding of your Catholic Faith.

Treasures from Our Tradition

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the "baptism of the bells," recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell's voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty-seven tons! There is no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!

God Wants To Be Known

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.
