Women's Bible Study:

Discovering Our Dignity (DOD)

Discovering Our Dignity teaches that women of the Old and New Testaments were sometimes as flawed and broken as we can be. Yet, the power of God worked in their lives. Through their stories recorded in Scripture, they reach out to touch our "present" in a tender, honest, and loving way – woman to woman.

Weekly sessions begin on Monday September 9, 9:30 – 11 am, and Wednesday September 11, 7 – 8:30 pm, at Sts. Peter & Paul Church in Bellville. Contact Ruth Dinges for more information. A Bible and Study Guide are required.

Today's Readings

First Reading - Your ancestors waited in faith and courage for God's promised summons (Wisdom 18:6-9).

Psalm - Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own (Psalm 33).

Second Reading - By faith Abraham sojourned in the promised land (Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19 [1-2, 8-12]).

Gospel - You do not know the day nor the hour when the Son of Man will appear (Luke 12:32-48 [35-40]).

Faith and Hope

Faith and hope are closely united in today's readings. The Israelites knew when the Passover was coming, and so were not in fear, but had faith and courage, "putting into effect with one accord the divine institution." In this we can see a foretelling of the Eucharist that we celebrate according to Christ's command, "Do this in memory of me."

We see that Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, and Jacob died in faith, although they did not see fulfillment of the promise. We live in hope that our faith will be fulfilled every time we celebrate this sacrament. We too are not to be afraid, but to have hope that our faith will be fulfilled in the coming of Christ.

Treasures from Our Tradition

When Pope Pius XII died in 1958, there was the usual buzz of speculation about likely successors. Cardinal Agagianian, Patriarch of the Armenians, was highly thought of as a likely choice. This took many Catholics by surprise, since he had never celebrated the same liturgy as Pope Pius, but followed ancient Armenian customs according to the Eastern Church, which veils the Eucharistic liturgy from sight by a series of curtains, and in which the priest kneels while the people stand for Communion.

In the years that followed, the Second Vatican Council would affirm the dignity and independence of the Eastern Churches, in complete union with Rome, yet different in patterns of life and worship. We have the same faith, the same sacraments, and the same pope. Yet everywhere in the world our separate Churches are combined into families held together by the ministry of bishops. All of this serves as warning: If you ever say, "But we have always done it this way," you are on very thin ice indeed!

Thank You to the Immaculate Conception Church Community

The family of Clara Susen extends their thanks and appreciation for the food provided after her funeral service. It was such a comfort to enjoy a delicious meal and it gave us time to share memories with family and friends. Thank you again for your kindness! Blessings to all from the Family of Clara Susen, Susie and Billy Thaler
