"America, it is said, is suffering from intolerance - it is not. It is suffering from tolerance. Tolerance of right and wrong, truth and error, virtue and evil, Christ and chaos. Our country is not nearly so overrun with the bigoted as it is overrun with the broadminded." - Bishop Fulton J. Sheen

Listen to Catholic Radio

We are blessed to have a Catholic radio station nearby. The Guadalupe Radio Network station in Houston is at 1430 on your AM radio. Listen to the station to find encouragement and learn about your Catholic Faith.

Called to Serve

The status of God's beloved Son is not one he clings to. It is one he shares. All of us are called to be sons and daughters of God. In Jesus, we can all claim God's favor. The second reading makes this clear. Here we read of the baptism of Cornelius and his household. Peter's speech recalls the anointing of Jesus by the Holy Spirit and the great power that swept through Israel and onto the doorstep of the Gentile Cornelius.

As for his household, so for us. There is an end to our work on earth, to our baptismal vocation and the honorable work we do. But there is no end to the saving life given to us through baptism. There is no end to the life of the children of God; there is no end to God's compassion, which we know in Christ Jesus. There is no end to our status as chosen and beloved people of God. Because of Jesus' life, death, and resurrection, we are forever among those on whom God's favor rests.

Peace

We should have great peace, if we did not busy ourselves with what others say and do. - Thomas à Kempis

The 2021 Confirmation Class

The youth from Immaculate Conception Church and from Sts. Peter & Paul Church attended a Confirmation Retreat last weekend at the Cat Springs Retreat Center. From the smiles on everyone's faces you can see that a good time was had by all. A big thank you to Fr. Tim, Deacon Gerald, our youth ministers, small group leaders, all the parent chaperones, and all who prayed for us during our retreat.

God's Word Today

The Christmas season comes to a conclusion today as we remember the baptism of the Lord in the Jordan by John the Baptist. How fitting it is that the refrain for today's responsorial psalm is "The Lord will bless his people with peace."

As we celebrate the continued manifestation of Christ to the world, we recognize the tremendous potential for peace that exists in the hearts of all who have been baptized into Christ. Isaiah tells us that God's chosen ones are those who have been called for the victory of justice. Let us not leave the work of justice and peace to others. Let us listen attentively to God's saving word and pray that we, in whatever ways possible—small or large—will bring justice and peace to those people and to those places where injustice, suffering, and violence flourish.
