All Saints Day at Sts. Peter & Paul

Saints Peter & Paul will be celebrating All Saints Day at CCE. November 1 is All Saints Day and our Sunday classes will be celebrating together in their classrooms: Group A, on November 1, and Group B, on November 8 (all online students are welcome to join us, in costume, at mass). Please dress your child as their favorite Saint, and tell them who they are representing. Also, plan to wear the costumes to church. Father and the congregation love to see our little saints all dressed up. A treat will be given to all who participate.

We were born to love, we live to love, and we will die to love still more. - Joseph Cafasso

Come Learn About the Knights of Columbus

The Knights are Catholic men who lead, serve, protect, and defend. We share a desire to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors, and role models and to put charity and community first. If this sounds like something you are interested in, please speak with one of the Knights after Mass on November 1 or 8 at Sts. Peter & Paul Church.

CCE Parking at Immaculate Conception

For the safety of our children, please DO NOT park in front of the CCE building or cemetery. By doing so you are blocking traffic and most importantly, endangering the lives of our children. Please contact Emma Jackson if you have any questions.

Retreats at Holy Name for Both Parishes

Retreats are scheduled at the Holy Name Passionist Retreat Center in Houston for the women and men of Immaculate Conception and Sts. Peter and Paul parishes.

The women's retreat is February 26 – 28, 2021. Please contact Susan Huff for information.

The men's retreat is January 22 - 24, 2021. Please contact Christophe Gay or Mark Husband for information.

Or you can visit "www.holynameretreatcenter.com" for information and to register. To meet COVID19 guidelines, all retreats are limited to 48 attendees.

The Wisdom of Mother Teresa

People are often unreasonable, irrational, and self-centered. Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives. Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you will win some unfaithful friends and some genuine enemies. Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and sincere people may deceive you. Be honest and sincere anyway.

What you spend years creating, others could destroy overnight. Create anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, some may be jealous. Be happy anyway.

The good you do today, will often be forgotten. Do good anyway.

Give the best you have, and it will never be enough. Give your best anyway.

In the final analysis, it is between you and God. It was never between you and them anyway.

Today's Readings

First Reading - You shall not oppress an alien, for you yourselves were once aliens in Egypt (EX 22:20-26).

Psalms - I love you, Lord, my strength (PS 18).

Second Reading - You became imitators of the Lord, so that you became a model for all believers (1 THES 1:5c-10).

Gospel - You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, and you shall love your neighbor as yourself (MT 22:34-40).

Love Shown in Action

Do you receive the word of God with joy as the Thessalonians did? Their faith showed in their actions. They became models for other believers.

The first reading tells us to put our faith into action. This passage is part of a long list of ordinances God commanded the Israelites to observe. God will judge us by how we treat our neighbors. God will hear the cries of any whom we neglect or mistreat and will come to their defense.

In today's Gospel the Pharisees put the question of God's law to Jesus. "Which commandment of the law is the greatest?" (Matthew 22:36) How could he possibly choose from all the detailed commandments the Jews observed? He was sure to offend somebody by his answer! Of course, Jesus went right to the heart of the matter. Love is the greatest commandment—love of God and love of neighbor. Everything else is based on this.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Sadly, one of the most difficult reforms of the Second Vatican Council for the Church to embrace has been one of the most thorough and beautiful: the sacrament of penance. Because it is individual and private, it has been difficult for the changes to take root. Sometimes a priest may be grounded in the earlier form, and at other times the penitent may resist the priest's attempt to blend in the proper texts and rituals.

Perhaps because the new form is almost identical in structure to the old, it has been difficult to institute. It may also be true that with the liturgy in English now, it is far more clear that the Eucharist, too, is a "sacrament of reconciliation."

It is certainly true that there are different skills and gifts in ministry, and experienced penitents know that not all priests are equally at ease in this sacramental encounter. Sometimes a difficult experience can drive people away from a liturgy that is spiritually rich and rewarding. Yet we know that one bad meal seldom puts people off restaurants forever: the dinner gong tends to dispel bad memories, and so we try again. Individual confession and absolution is for us both treasure and tradition. If you haven't been for a while, consider coming back to praise God for this gift of mercy.

Christian FYI - Halloween is the evening before the Christian holy days of All Hallows' Day (also known as All Saints' Day) on November 1 and All Souls' Day on November 2, thus giving the holiday on October 31 the full name of All Hallows' Eve (meaning the evening before All Hallows' Day).
