Please dress your child as their favorite Saint, and tell them who they are representing. Also, plan to wear the costumes to church. Father and the congregation love to see our little saints all dressed up. A treat will be given to all who participate.

Finding Serenity and Joy

Bishop Fulton Sheen once wrote, “Deep sorrow does not come because one has violated a law, but only if one knows he has broken off the relationship with Divine Love. But there is yet another element required for regeneration, the element of repentance and reparation. Repentance is a rather dry-eyed affair; tears flow in sorrow, but sweat pours out in repentance. It is not enough to tell God we are sorry and then forget all about it. If we broke a neighbor's window, we would not only apologize but also would go to the trouble of putting in a new pane.

Since all sin disturbs the equilibrium and balance of justice and love, there must be a restoration involving toil and effort. To see why this must be, suppose that every time a person did wrong he was told to drive a nail into the wall of his living room and every time that he was forgiven he was told to pull it out. The holes would still remain after the forgiveness. Thus every sin after being forgiven leaves “holes” or “wounds” in our human nature, and the filling up of these holes is done by penance, a thief who steals a watch can be forgiven for the theft, but only if he returns the watch.”

Come Learn About the Knights of Columbus

The Knights are Catholic men who lead, serve, protect, and defend. We share a desire to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors, and role models and to put charity and community first. If this sounds like something you are interested in, please speak with one of the Knights after Mass on November 1 or 8 at Sts. Peter & Paul Church.

CCE Parking at Immaculate Conception

For the safety of our children, please DO NOT park in front of the CCE building or cemetery. By doing so you are blocking traffic and most importantly, endangering the lives of our children. Please contact Emma Jackson if you have any questions.

Honoring All the Saints

The Feast of All Saints gathers all God's holy ones, in heaven and on earth, to celebrate the triumph of God which is already and not-yet. Today's readings reflect this eschatological perspective. The scene depicted in Revelation takes place in the presence of God and of the Lamb. There the vast multitude of saints gather, their robes made white by the blood of the Lamb and with the palm of victory in their hands, to give glory and praise to God. Their hymn is a song of thanksgiving that joyfully acknowledges that "salvation come from our God, ...and from the Lamb.

With today's Gospel, the Matthean version of the Beatitudes, the perspective shifts from heaven to earth. For the poor in spirit, for those who mourn, for those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, the triumph of God seems as yet unrealized. But the promise of future glory is assured because, as John says, even now we are God's children, though what we shall be has not yet been revealed.

Treasures from Our Tradition

For those of Mexican heritage, November 2 means celebration of el Dia de Los Muertos, or "the Day of the Dead." One of the most important days of the year for many, they join All Saints and All Souls together, visiting the graves of babies and children on All Saints, since they are santitos (little saints) or angelitos (little angels). Flowers, their favorite toys, favorite music, and so on, are taken to them. The following day, people spend time—some of them all day—at the cemetery with their loved ones who have died. From the ancient customs of the Indians the families pray, talk with them, and take them their favorite food. It is a most solemn but joyful day. It is a day to celebrate Christ's victory over death: "Death, where is your sting?" There is a mocking of death as people make skeletons, candy that represents death, and Pan de los Muertos (bread of the dead) and consume them in a kind of role reversal.

One of the customs is to build an altarcito (little altar) where one places mementos and pictures of those who have died. There are also favorite foods, candles, statues or pictures of favorite saints, books, and Bibles. Some parishes have begun to build an altarcito where all parishioners can join in honoring the deceased. A remembrance book can be placed to write names in. The altarcito is traditionally left up for the month of November.
