Bluebonnet Deanery Meeting at Sealy American Legion Hall

The Bluebonnet Deanery meeting will be Tuesday, June 16, at the American Legion Hall in Sealy. Registration for the meeting begins at 9:30 am. The meeting starts at 10:00 am.

At this meeting the Deanery will be collecting baby and household items. The baby items will benefit two Pregnancy Resource Centers (Sealy and Brenham). The household items will benefit two abused women shelters (Wellspring and Focusing Families in Hempstead).

Baby items could be bedding, clothes, bath goods, toys, diapers and so on. The household items could be mattress pads, blankets, comforters, shower curtains, rugs, and so on. Your donations enable the centers to provide shelter and independence for pregnant women or for battered and abused women who are escaping bad situations. If you cannot attend the meeting, put your donations in the baskets at Immaculate Conception Church or at Sts. Peter & Paul Church on or before Sunday, June 14.

Life In the Trinity

The name of the Trinity is, without a doubt, the most familiar sacred name to us. We speak it every time we make the sign of the cross, and it forms the heart of our Creed. Trinity Sunday is a good day, however, to stop and reflect on the unique role of each of the three persons we name so often in the Trinity and in our own lives. When we celebrate the Eucharist on Sunday, we come together as the Body of Christ through our baptism, and through the power of the Holy Spirit we offer the whole prayer of the Mass to God the Father. This presence of the Trinity does not stop when we leave church on Sunday. We are—always and everywhere—members of the Body, and everything we do as members of that Body is empowered by the Holy Spirit, all of it offered to the glory of our loving Father.

Take a moment each day this week to reflect on how the persons of the Trinity were present to you during the day, and how other people came to see the presence of the Trinity in your witness to the Good News.

Treasures from Our Tradition

The liturgy seems reluctant to return to Ordinary Time from the joys of Easter, and so the festivities extend to today's celebration of the mystery of God's relationship to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Gospel today centers the question of our relationship with God in the struggle of Nathaniel to believe that it is possible to experience "rebirth" in the Spirit. The answer of Jesus is that God's response to the messes of this world is the mystery of saving love in Jesus Christ and the outpouring of an empowering Spirit.

Western church architecture often tops a church building with a spire, indicating humanity's reach to a transcendent God.

The Eastern Church responds with onion-shaped domes, indicating the Spirit's being poured down upon humanity precisely at this locale, the gathering of the faithful for the Divine Liturgy. This familiar design encodes a great mystery: here, at the Lord's table, we experience the outpouring of the Spirit for the life of the world. Nathaniel came to Jesus by night, since he was still working out the meaning of his life. A life attuned to the inner life of the Trinity must always be given to the light of day.
