Have you been thinking about exploring the Catholic faith?

Would you like to learn more about what Catholics believe and how we worship? Whether you are deeply interested or merely curious, we invite you to join us to explore the Sunday scriptures, answer questions, and discuss basic Christian beliefs from a Catholic perspective. Meetings are very informal and everyone is welcome. For more information, please call the rectory office (979-865-2368) or contact Deacon Gerald DuPont.

Online Giving Available for Both Parishes

Both Immaculate Conception Church and Sts. Peter & Paul Church now offer online giving. With many parishioners who are still uncomfortable or unable to attend mass due to age or medical issues, we encourage you to use our online giving. It is a very easy process. Just go to the Sts. Peter & Paul website, <https://stspbellvilletx.org/> and click on the tab labeled "On-line Giving (Industry)" or "On-line Giving (Bellville)" and follow the prompts.

Forgiveness is above all a personal choice, a decision of the heart to go against the natural instinct to pay back evil with evil. – Pope John Paul II

Purchase CCSF Cards as Gifts

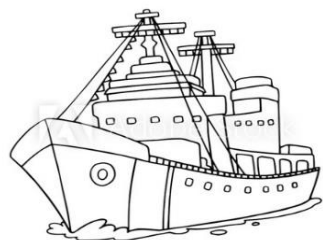

The Catholic Clerical Student Fund (CCSF) raises funds to be used in the education of young men to the Priesthood at St. Mary's Seminary in Houston. The primary fundraiser are the sale of prayer cards, which make great Christmas or birthday gifts. To purchase cards, Sts. Peter & Paul parishioners can contact Jackie Stewart and Immaculate Conception parishioners can contact Cecilia Vasicek.

Donations for Seafarers

Seafarers coming into the Port of Houston need our help! Imagine if you were on a ship at sea and you ran out of all or some of the items listed below and you could not get off the ship. What would you do?

All we ask is you bring one or more of the items below with you to church and put them in the box provided in the back of church. The items needed include: combs, bath soaps, disposable razors, toothbrushes, toothpaste, shampoos, pencils, pens, small writing pads, puzzles, envelopes, deodorants, needle & thread, white tube socks, brown cotton gloves, knit caps, aspirins, handkerchiefs, Band-Aids, key chains, small photo albums, Texas souvenirs, disposable or single use cameras, books, plastic shoe boxes, shaving cream (no aerosol cans).

This year we would like to get plastic shoe boxes for the seafarers. They are easier to store and the seafarers can use them to keep their stuff in. Our goal is to collect 200 boxes. The last day for donations is Sunday, September 13. The boxes will be wrapped at the Bluebonnet Deanery Meeting in Bellville at 9:30 am, Tuesday, September 15.

Congratulations to Brenda Moctezuma

Brenda was commissioned as the Sts. Peter & Paul

Archdiocesan Youth Council (AYC) Representative for 2020-2021 by Cardinal DiNardo on Sunday, August 2. Brenda was commissioned via Zoom following the Virtual AYC day. We are very proud of Brenda and her devotion to the Jesus and His church. We look forward to all of her service and works this year. Join us in wishing God's blessing on Brenda.

Sts. Peter & Paul CCE Registration Update

We have made a few changes in registration for CCE this year, which will make it easier on both parents and staff. (We have gone paperless!) Please go to the Sts. Peter & Paul website, and click on the Formation tab. To the right you will see where it says "CCE registration" (English and Spanish). It will only take you a few minutes. At the end of the On line registration, you will see a button that will take you to our online payment. Once this is complete, your child/children are registered. All registrations must be completed by August 28th, in order to ensure a place in the classroom, or to have the materials that you will need, if you choose the at home program. (Financial assistance is available upon request). If you have any problems registering or need any help, please email Kimberly Harrelson at Kimberly.harrelson@Stsppic.org.

Immaculate Conception CCE Registration

Parents, please check your email. Information about CCE registrations were sent to the email address we have on file. Deadline to register is Aug 28. If you are having any issues, please let me know and we will meet in the gathering space of the CCE building to register on church computers.

Padres, por favor revisen su correo electrónico. La información sobre los registros de CCE se envió a la dirección de correo electrónico que tenemos registrada. La fecha límite para registrarse es el 28 de agosto. Si tiene algún problema, hágamelo saber y nos reuniremos en el espacio de reunión del edificio de CCE para registrarse en las computadoras de la iglesia.

God Bless,
Emma Jackson, DRE, Immaculate Conception Industry

Called to Act in God's Name

"Let all the nations praise you!" (Psalm 67:4) today's psalm response exclaims. In the psalms and other Hebrew scriptures, this kind of invocation is actually an invitation to God to act, to intervene in human lives in a manner that will cause everyone—not just the Chosen People—to give praise. Stated a bit more strongly, it is something of a "put up or shut up" challenge to God, the sort of strong statement the psalmists of Israel, trusting in their intimate and loving relationship with God, were not afraid to make.

The Gospel has its own exclamation, announcing the appearance of the Canaanite woman with "Behold!" (Matthew 15:22) "Behold!" is a scriptural flag that tells us that God is about to act or announce something through an individual or a situation. In the case of Jesus, God was going to act through this woman, whom nobody among Jesus' followers would have believed to be an agent of the divine will. Like the psalmists, we might passively inform or perhaps even actively challenge God to do something so that everyone will come to belief, but God will always turn the tables on us. It becomes our calling, our duty (as it was for Jesus) to behold the situations and persons of our daily lives so that God can act through us, so the Kingdom can be announced through our living.

The Salvation of All Humanity

In this Sunday's readings three men confront the privilege and the purpose of Israel in God's one will to save all humanity. The anonymous post-exilic prophet known to us as Third Isaiah (55-65) in today's oracle gives voice to God's intention to extend the privileges of Israel, including full access to the Temple, to righteous Gentiles, "foreigners who join themselves to the Lord." That divine intention is finally realized when Jesus meets and ministers to the Canaanite woman in today's Gospel. The irrevocable privilege of Israel is made clear in Jesus' initial response to her request. "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel," he tells her. But her great faith persuades him to reach beyond ethnic boundaries and anticipate the worldwide mission that will only be revealed after his resurrection.

In Romans the Apostle to the Gentiles reaffirms his conviction that the privilege of Israel is irrevocable and that, however it may seem, in the words of Mark Nanos, "the pattern of salvation history has been and always will be... 'to the Jews first and also to the Greeks.'"
