

Parishioners Michelle Johnston and Andrew and Linda Stein were awarded the Archdiocese of New Orleans' Order of St. Louis Medallion honoring their years of dedicated service to St. Edward the Confessor Parish. Michelle, Andrew and Linda joined honorees from other parishes in the Archdiocese for a special service on October 18 at St. Catherine of Siena, where Archbishop Aymond presented the awards. Please join us in congratulating them on this award.

Michelle Johnston and her family have been parishioners at St. Edward since 2004. Her three children attended St. Edward School. Michelle has been a very familiar face around St. Edward School for many years. She has assisted with everything from yard duty, photography days, Field Day, graduations, and closing programs. She has also been an active member of the Ladies Council, chairing numerous committees and volunteering at many of their events. Michelle has been on the Children's Liturgy Committee and enjoys giving back in this spiritual way. She also works the Cochon every year. Michelle has served as the CYO Director for the past 6 years bringing our youth together spiritually, athletically, and socially.

Andrew and Linda Stein moved into St. Edward Parish in 1972. Both of their children attended St. Edward School. Andrew was chairman of the spring fair and the Cochon de Lait for 2 years. He was the first scoutmaster at St. Edward and has served on the Pastoral Council. Linda was very involved with the Ladies Council, having served as the treasurer and coordinating the room mothers. Linda also worked in the Parish Center for 11 years. Both Andrew and Linda have been familiar faces around St. Edward for many years. They are currently members of the Hilltoppers and volunteer each week counting the collections.

Congratulations and thank you to Michelle, Andrew and Linda
