Dear Parishioners of St. Edward's:

I want to let you know that I will be moving to a new parish this summer. Archbishop Aymond has appointed me as pastor of St. Genevieve Parish in Slidell. Fr. Joseph Man Tran, currently pastor of St. Matthew the Apostle Parish in River Ridge, will be the new pastor here at St. Edward's. These changes will take effect on Wednesday, July 1.

My preference would have been to make this announcement to you personally at each of the Masses this weekend. Unfortunately, this was made impossible by the coronavirus situation. I have been extremely blessed to serve as pastor of St. Edward the Confessor Parish for twelve years and I will have much more to say in the future. In the meantime, let us keep each other and our parish in prayer always trusting in the Providence of God.

May God bless you all. St. Edward the Confessor, pray for us.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Gerald L. Seiler
