Dear 8D Homeroom,

Welcome back to school and welcome to the best HOMEROOM ON THE PLANET! I am so excited to work with you this school year. I know we are all going to be able to pull together and support each other!

FIRST: Check over your stack of books from book pick up day.

You should have the following in your stack (if you do not, have your parent/guardian contact the front office immediately).

- Math textbook & workbook
- Science textbook & workbook
- Religion workbook
- Social Studies textbook
- Language Arts textbook, workbook, vocabulary book, and 1 novel
- Art Kit
- PE Letter
- Study Skills Text
- Agenda Book

SECOND: Review your schedule!

We will begin each day with faith formation and reflections at home and independently. This is not a live-instruction period with any of your teachers. You will then attend your classes at scheduled times. Be sure to go to the Google Classroom page for each of your teachers during your designated class time slot and click on the Google Meets link (which is located in the header block of each class' Google Classroom page). This link will connect you with your teacher for class (instead of Zoom).

You will have a lunch break midday and then three more classes. Finally, at the end of the day on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday we will meet as a homeroom for announcements and conversation. Your attendance will be recorded for each class and homeroom so be sure to keep your schedule close by!

THIRD: Log into ALL of your Google Classrooms!

Please use the link provided below to access all of your Google Classroom codes. Be sure to log into ALL applicable classes BY MONDAY, AUGUST 24, 2020 so that you are ready to go on the first day of school! Google Classroom Codes Doc:

LASTLY: Take a deep breath!

We are going to get through this together. Remember, this is temporary and new, so we will all have to work together, help one another, and keep our faith as we embark on this journey together.

I MISS YOU ALL AND I CAN'T WAIT TO SEE YOU!

With love and excitement,
Ms. Durney
