

Catholic School Week at SCS!

By:Arielle Somerville

St.Charles dives into Catholic school week

On Monday we kicked off Catholic Schools Week by having a bagel breakfast for grades PK through 8. On Wednesday, sixth grade and Kindergarten will partner up for a project organized by Ms.Parnese and the Kindergarten teachers. On Thursday it's school spirit dress down. All the students and teachers will show their blue and gold school pride. Also, UPK and Kindergarten will be doing crafts together that day. On Friday we will have a school mass. Also on Friday, the journalism club with have a special visitor, Ms. Clare Regan. She is a college professor at Wagner College and she will speak to the students about journalism. Throughout the week, there will be speakers and special guests visiting our school and speaking to the students.

Catholic Schools Week at St. Charles School is a great and fun week for the students. We are so lucky that our amazing principal, Mr.Kiernan, makes St. Charles such a special place for all of us.

Happy Catholic Schools Week!
