

Mrs. Devlin

By: Alyssa LaGrega and Sophia Fasino

Mrs. Devlin has been working at St. Charles School since 1983 and is still doing a great job teaching. She was my mom's gym teacher and now teaches third grade. She is so smart and kind and always cheers people up.

Interview

Me: "Why did you want to start teaching?"

Mrs. Devlin: "Ever since I was a little girl I loved playing teacher. That's how I knew I wanted to start teaching."

Sophia: "How many years have you been teaching third grade?"

Mrs. Devlin: "I started teaching as a third grade teacher for 4 years. After that, I started to teach gym for seventeen years. Now I have been back in third grade for the past 12 years. So, I have been teaching for 33 years at St. Charles."

Me: "Was it fun teaching my mom in gym?"

Mrs. Devlin: "Yes. It was really fun because I taught her from kindergarten to 8th grade and got to watch her grow up. So, I taught her for nine years."

Journalism Club

Mrs. Devlin is a hard working teacher and even takes time out of her lunch break every Tuesday to run the Journalism club.

Journalism club is a club in our school that teaches young writers to become great journalists, but we would not have Journalism club if it wasn't for Mrs. Devlin. She helps us become the best writers we can be and encourages us to write great stories. In fact, I wouldn't be writing this story right now if it wasn't for Mrs. Devlin.

Thank you, Mrs. Devlin, for being a great teacher and helping students grow. I wouldn't be the smart student I am if it wasn't for you.
