

A visit from a master journalist, Ms. Regan!

by Luigi Signorastri

On January 31, 2020, a Wagner college professor, Ms. Regan, visited Saint Charles School. Ms. Regan was our School principal's, Mr Kiernan, teacher when he attended Wagner College. She was also our journalism teacher's, Charlie DeBiase teacher. Ms. Regan is a writer, editor, and a teacher at Saint Joseph Hill Academy, along with being a professor at Wagner College. She writes for the Staten Island Advance.

She came to speak to us about journalism and she showed us a few of her favorite stories she wrote. She gave us a 1 hour seminar on how to be a better journalist and she answered many questions that some of the students had for her. She showed so much excitement and enthusiasm for her writing. She let us know how much she loves to interview people and to share each person's story by writing it. She also reminded us that a notebook is a journalist's best friend to write notes before you write your article.

Some of the teachers that were at the seminar were Mrs. Devlin, Mrs. Parnese, Mr. DeBiase, and principal Kiernan.

We are very grateful to Mr Kiernan for planning this visit. We are thankful that Ms. Regan took the time out of her busy schedule to visit us and talk to us about Journalism!
