Remember that our Christmas Season begins the evening of December 24th and goes through January 12th, the Baptism of the Lord. The Advent Season is a time of preparation to celebrate the Birth of the Lord at Christmas. Let us all try to celebrate the seasons as they are meant to be celebrated and not just in a way that makes everything convenient for us. May Jesus truly be the meaning of each celebration for all of you and may God Bless each of your families.
