RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK: June 22-29

PRAY: That the Holy Spirit would give us the courage to bear witness to the truth of the gospel, even in the face of social and legal pressure.

REFLECT: All baptized Christians are called to share the joy of the gospel with others. When most of our co-workers, neighbors, and even family members don't share our faith and perhaps do not practice any faith at all, we might be timid or afraid to talk about our faith. But in a culture filled with so much junk, people are hungry for solid food. When we encounter Jesus Christ, we come to know the bread of life, the truth in which the restless hearts of our age can rest.

ACT: As Pope Francis teaches, "The Holy Spirit also grants the courage to proclaim the newness of the Gospel with boldness (parrhesía) in every time and place, even when it meets with opposition" (Evangelii gaudium, 259). Let's take this week to exercise our freedom by sharing our faith in Jesus Christ or to talk about religious freedom with others. Try it today!

St. John the Baptist

June 24

St. John the Baptist's entire life is devoted to proclaiming that Jesus is the Son of God. In the womb, he jumps to signify joy (Luke 1:44). As he baptizes people, he talks of another that is greater than he is, who will baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire (Luke 3:16). John's baptisms attracted countless people to the Jordan River as he spoke of the Messiah's coming, with some of his followers becoming Jesus' first disciples.

Dear Lord,

Help me proclaim Jesus' presence

With each word I say and every move

I make,

Just as St. John the Baptist did,

From the womb

Until my last breath.

Amen.

Feast of Corpus Christi

This Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. In this celebration we proclaim our belief in the Real presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist. We also proclaim that the same Jesus lives within each one of us who are baptized into His Body, the Church.

At each Communion we receive the Divine Host whom takes up residence within each one of us. We carry Him into the real world just as we carry the monstrance into its streets today. When we process we proclaim that the Lord continues to come into the world, through us.
