Catholic Social Teaching Corner

July 13-14, 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this familiar Gospel the lawyer, who wishes to justify himself, asks Jesus the crucial question: Who is my neighbor? Jesus' answer in the story of Good Samaritan indicates that our neighbor is the one before who is in need. The priest and Levite in the story could not move beyond the laws regarding purity to see that the man in need was their neighbor, but the Samaritan could. Is there anything in our lives that keeps us from really seeing a neighbor in need and responding as Jesus desires?

Julio 13-14, 15to. Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

En este Evangelio, el abogado, que desea justificarse a si mismo, hace a Jesús la pregunta crucial: ¿Quién es mi prójimo? Jesús le responde con la historia de la buena Samaritana, que nuestro vecino es el necesitado ante nosotros. Los sacerdotes y Levitas de la historia no podían ir más allá de la leyes de pureza para ver que el hombre necesitado era el vecino, pero la Samaritana sí pudo ¿Hay alguien en nuestras vidas que nos impide poder ver a un vecino necesitado y responder a los deseos de Jesús?

FAMILY CONNECTION

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 10:25-37

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

Families rely on selfless love. Parents show love for their children not just when it's convenient, but whenever their children's needs must be met. Imagine if the members of a family were concerned only with their own needs. How quickly things would fall apart!

In the story of the Good Samaritan, we learn about someone who went out of his way to care for the needs of another. He recognized the victim as his brother and accepted responsibility for him. As a family, talk about the responsibilities of each member of the family. Share how you, as parents, care for the needs of everyone in the family even when it's inconvenient. Ask your children to share times when they did chores and helped the family even when it was not convenient.

Read aloud this Sunday's Gospel, Luke 10:25-37. Talk about how the Samaritan went out of his way to care for the needs of the victim. Make a commitment as a family to follow the example of the Good Samaritan. Explain that the more you learn to accept responsibility for each other's needs at home, the more you'll be able to accept responsibility for the needs of others in the world.

ST. KATERI TEKAKWITHA- JULY 14

Kateri was born near the town of Auriesville, New York, in the year 1656, the daughter of a Mohawk warrior. Although she had to suffer greatly for her faith, she remained firm in it. She lived a life dedicated to chastity, prayer, penitential practices, and care for the sick and aged. Every morning, even in the bitterest winter, she stood before the chapel door until it opened at four and remained there until after the last Mass. She died on April 7, 1680, at the age of twenty-four. She is the patroness of ecology and the environment, people in exile and Native Americans.
