

CORNER

As part of our ongoing commitment to promote and encourage all vocations within our parish family we present information each month to help develop our knowledge and understanding of each calling.

This month, Fr. Patrick Beneteau, Director of Vocations and Seminarians for the Diocese of London will be joining us to speak about vocations at all masses the weekend of September 16 and 17.

“Priestly vocation: The priestly vocation is essentially a call to sanctity, in the form that derives from the Sacrament of Holy orders. Sanctity is intimacy with God; it is the imitation of Christ, poor, chaste and humble; it is unreserved love for souls and self-giving to their true good; it is love for the Church which is holy and wants us to be holy, because such is the mission that Christ has entrusted to it. Each one of you must be holy also in order to help your brothers pursue their vocation to sanctity.”

Beneteau and let us pray for vocations to the priesthood and all the priests who shepherd us - thank you Frs. Al, Gary and Donato for all that you do and are for our parish family and beyond! We continue to pray for all of you in your vocations.
