

Political Guidelines for Parishes

Committed to principled nonpartisan engagement in the political process, the Church does not and will not engage in partisan politics. The Church does not support or oppose any candidate or party but seeks to focus attention on the moral and human dimensions of issues.

We strongly urge all parishioners to become informed on key issues and to vote. In a democracy, loving our neighbor and caring for the least among us means supporting leaders and policies that promote the common good and protect society's most vulnerable members. Helping Catholics recognize and act on this dimension of our faith is an essential task for parish leaders.

Keeping in mind our Catholic social teachings and responsibility to shape morality in the political arena, please avoid the distribution at any parish or diocesan entity of materials that mention specific candidates or political parties in any manner. This prohibits the following types of materials:

- voter guides that mention a candidate's position on an issue;
- voting records that state an incumbent's record on an issue;
- candidate surveys; and
- materials that describe a political party's position on an issue.

The policy does not apply to materials that discuss voting in general, the issues, Catholic voting responsibility, or Church teaching on public policy issues so long as the material does not mention a candidate or political party.
