This scholarship has been established as a memorial to Lloyd and Marie Lasley who, along with their six children, joined Sacred Heart of Jesus parish in 1974. Marie was a long-time religious education teacher for Sacred Heart of Jesus. Their children JoAnn, John, Anthony, Michele, Lisa, and Daniel were actively involved in parish activities throughout their youth. Lloyd and Marie were members of the parish until Marie's passing in 2013 and Lloyd's passing in 2020.

A $1000 scholarship will be awarded to recognize a member of Sacred Heart of Jesus parish who demonstrates his/her Catholic faith and identity through commitment and service to his/her parish, school, and community. Any member of the parish who is pursuing education beyond high school is eligible to apply. The scholarship selection committee will use the following criteria to determine the scholarship recipient:

- The individual demonstrates his/her faith through involvement and service to parish, school and community.
- Special consideration may be given to individuals pursuing a degree in education and/or parishioners who have been active in the 4-H program.
