Grand Knight's Report

Brothers:

We begin another month battling through possibly the worst pandemic in our nation. The hope is to begin "a new routine" as soon as possible and best as possible. I want to thank you and your families for continuing to serve our church, council, and the community.

Within our restrictions, we plan on having First Friday Mass on August 7th at 6:30 p.m. Our celebrant will be Father Boddie and co-celebrant, Father Clay Ludwig. Please try to attend and continue praying for all.

Our next event is the Tootsie Roll Drive which will be held on Sept 19th and 20th at Publix; Sept 26th and 27th at CTK. This fund raiser supports individuals with intellectual and physical disabilities. Contact Scott Lutheran or check our website for available times.

Stay safe and healthy. Keep praying.

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Philippians 4:6-7

Vivat Jesus,

Deacons Report

Dear brothers in Christ,

I'm writing this reflection on the feast of St. James who was called by Christ to become one of His disciples. When he was called by Christ, he left his father and his fishing business and followed Christ. It had to take a great deal of trust to leave his family and his livelihood to follow an itinerant preacher to an unknown future.

We are living in a difficult time not knowing when the coronavirus will come under control and we will be able get back to some semblance of normal. As followers of Christ, we need to place our trust in Him like James and He will take care of us. How do I know that? Because we reminded of this over and over again in scripture. For example, We are told in the letter to the Philippians to not "be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your request be made know to God, and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

God bless,
Deacon Stan Grenn

K'Cees Korner

August 2020 will be awesome. The Knights are planning on having 1st Friday Mass on August 7th at the hall. Fr Boddie will be the celebrant, but there will be a special co-celebrant: Fr Clay Ludwig. What a blessing this will be for Council #4727. The Knights donated a chalice to Fr Clay and the K-Cees purchased the carrying case for it. This will NOT be a pot luck. To be on the safe side, the K-Cees will provide pizza for dinner.

Our next event will be our K-Cee Membership Tea on Sunday August 23rd at 2PM. Again the K-Cees will provide the food. Since we can social distance at the hall, please try to come to start our new "year".

I plan to do some "Boxes of Joy" again, like we did last year. I will pay for 5 boxes ($45) and will ask for donations if we have more. Please bring items for girls ages 10-14, no liquids please. Items like pencils, pens, hair bows, flip flops, etc. are very welcome. In case you can't make the Membership Tea, bring your Boxes of Joy goodies to 1st Friday Mass.

Let's hope that we can have a fun year as we support our Knights and help our communities.

Blessings to all. Stay safe. Stay hydrated. And know that Jesus and His Blessed Mother are keeping us all in their loving arms, even though we can't hug each other.

Love to all Laura Morris

Sidewalk stories of babies saved by Family for Life, Jacksonville:

One of our counselors, suffering from dehydration, was admitted to the hospital. While in bed, a male nurse asked him what he had been doing to cause him to be dehydrated. The counselor replied, "I stand at the local abortion facility four days a week from 8:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. trying to save babies' LIVES." The nurse immediately clutched the counselor's hand and passionately said, "Thank you!" He continued, "About three years ago, my fiancé and I found ourselves pregnant and were scared and confused. We decided to have an abortion. When we arrived at the facility, we saw people like you standing there with your signs. Our hearts were touched. We just kept on driving. Here is a photo of our beautiful daughter, saved by those selfless people!"

See how your presence on the sidewalk makes a difference!

Our small group, in front of "A Woman's Choice" of Jacksonville, 4131 University Blvd. S., has grown to 11 brothers and sisters from the Knights, Christ the King and other churches. Please come out and join me and Bernie each Monday from 8:30 - 9:30 a.m. Please join PGK Butch Ferrizzi on Wednesday and Thursday from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. in front of Planned Parenthood, 5978 Powers Ave, Jacksonville, FL 32217.
