A Mass of Healing for the victims and their families involved in the tragic bus accident will be held Wednesday, June 26, 2019 at 6:00 p.m. at Aquinas Newman Center. The University of New Mexico Aquinas Newman Center’s youth group and their chaperones were returning home from the Steubenville of the Rockies Catholic Youth Convention held June 21-23, 2019 in Denver, Colorado.

A Memorial Mass will be held for Jason Paul Marshall, the Archdiocese of Santa Fe seminarian who was killed in the accident, on the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, Saturday, June 29, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. at Our Lady of the Annunciation, where he was a parishioner. Archbishop John C. Wester will be the main celebrant for both Masses.

Jason’s funeral Mass will be in New York where his family resides.

Archbishop Wester states, “We continue to pray for all those involved in the accident, asking especially that Jason and Anthony [Padilla, the driver of the bus,] will rest in peace. God bless you; and thank you to everyone for all you are doing to honor Jason’s memory and to console the others, especially our seminarians.”--END
