

Ramsey County Attorney John J. Choi and Archbishop Bernard Hebda from the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis extend an invitation to all to attend a Conference for

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE and RECONCILIATION

Thursday, January 23, 2020

9 a.m. — 3 p.m.

Holiday Inn & Suites, 8511 Hudson Blvd., Lake Elmo

- ◆ This conference is open to all victim/survivors, and anyone who has been impacted by clergy sexual abuse.
- ◆ This conference will focus on steps taken to ensure safety for all children in the care of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. Archbishop Bernard Hebda and Ramsey County Attorney John Choi will update us on the Ramsey County Settlement Agreement and share the direction as we move forward.
- ◆ Retired Justice Janine Geske from Milwaukee, will share her many years of experience working with restorative justice and abuse survivors.
- ◆ A panel of survivors and others will share their experiences concerning clergy sexual abuse and how it has changed their lives.
- ◆ There will be an opportunity to experience healing circles as one of the restorative justice practices.

There is no fee to attend; however, space is limited. To reserve a space and to give us a lunch count (lunch provided) please email Paula Kaempffer, Archdiocesan Outreach Coordinator for Restorative Justice and Abuse Prevention at kaempfferp@archspm.org or Tom Ring, Assistant Ramsey County Attorney at tom.ring@co.ramsey.mn.us or call 651.291.4429 for more information.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE IS JANUARY 20, 2020
