

ADDRESSING THE HARM

The St. Odilia Parish Leadership Council invites our community to participate in an evening for:

Catholic Community of St. Odilia

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE AND HEALING

with Justice Janine Geske

Presenters will include:

- John Choi, Ramsey County Attorney
- Father Dan Griffith, pastor at Our Lady of Lourdes and previous Archdiocesan Delegate for Safe Environment
- Janine Geske, former Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice and Marquette Law School professor

In the wake of the clergy abuse scandal, the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis has led the way with programs addressed at acknowledging and healing the harm caused by abuse. An important component of restorative justice is to acknowledge and name the harm. John Choi and Father Dan Griffith will comment on the harm that has been caused by clergy sexual abuse in our archdiocese and the steps that are being taken to move forward and to heal.

Justice Janine Geske has led conversations on restorative justice at the Vatican and throughout the world. She will share her experiences with us and will introduce and conduct healing circles.

Please mark your calendars as St. Odilia continues its path toward hope and healing for all who have been impacted by the clergy sexual abuse crisis as we host this important event:

Thursday, February 21, 7:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. Courtyard
Catholic Community of St. Odilia
3495 N. Victoria St., Shoreview

Justice Geske will also lead restorative justice programs at three other locations as follows:

- February 20, 2019 at 7:00 p.m. St. Mary of the Lake in White Bear Lake
- February 22, 2019 at 12:30 p.m. University of St. Thomas – St. Thomas Murphy Institute
- February 23, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. St. Thomas More in St. Paul

Please watch the bulletin and our website at www.stodilia.org for more information regarding this event at St. Odilia and the other locations.
