PROMISES KEPT...?

Jesus promises: Ask – you will receive;

Seek – you will find;

Knock – the door will be opened.

He tells us to be persistent doing that!

Do I believe he keeps his promises?

Do I persist?

-Deacon Tom

CFF Frequently Asked Questions

1. When do Children Faith Formation classes take place?
CFF classes take place on Sunday mornings from 10:30-11:45 a.m., from September through the end of April. Classes are for children in PK3-fifth grade.

2. What is a typical class like?
In each class, the children participate in a lesson which integrates prayer, Sacred Scripture, and a pertinent topic regarding Catholic life, beliefs, and worship. Each class includes activities and discussions which foster an atmosphere of faith, learning and friendship.

3. How can I get more involved as a parent?
Our dedicated CFF catechists, assistants, and hallway volunteers make the program possible! If you want to find out more about getting involved, please contact Maria Reynolds at mreynolds@stmichaelchurch.net or 713.403.4121. We need additional volunteers for the coming year.

4. When can my child prepare for First Eucharist?
Sacrament Preparation is a two consecutive year process. Children should be enrolled in Children Faith Formation during first grade and second grade in order to prepare for sacraments and celebrate First Eucharist in the spring of their second-grade year.

5. Is there another faith formation option other than Sunday classes?
Yes! Families who do not have a child in their 2nd year of preparation for the sacraments of Penance & Reconciliation and 1st Eucharist have the option of participating in a home school faith formation program during the academic year.

Feeling hurt, angry, or demoralized about the sexual abuse crisis plaguing the Catholic Church? Our parish wants to help, and that’s why we’ve ordered copies of a new book for every person/family in the parish. It’s titled “Letter to a Suffering Church: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis” by Bishop Robert Barron. We invite you to pick up your free copy of the book on Wednesday, August 7 in the Parish Life Center, Room A.

We will speak about how we will review the information that Bishop Barron has given us on that evening from 7:00 – 8:00 pm as well as answer any questions we can. On Wednesday, August 21 from 7:00 to 9:00 pm we will provide a deeper reflection on the material that you have had a chance to read.
