

Special Message from Father McSweeney

It seems, as of this writing, that because of fear of contaminating others, we will not be distributing palms this Palm Sunday. However, that does not mean we cannot still be part of the celebration in our homes.

What if everyone on Sunday, April 5th, in the morning, puts a branch on the door of their house or on the window, to celebrate Palm Sunday?

It could be any green branch you can get. Some traditions even use pussy willows. This would help, despite social distancing, to be connected as we enter into the Holiest of Weeks.
