Jesus says... "Come to me all you who are weary and burdened and I will give you rest." He waits for you in confession.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are drawing near the end of the Easter season, which means that we are also deep into our reading of the Acts of the Apostles in the Sunday readings. We read the Acts of the Apostles during the Easter season because the story of the growth of the ecclesia (the Church) is our story. Certainly, the times and culture in which the Church grew are very foreign to us. Clothing, language, and worldview are all very different now. Nonetheless, knowing how that tiny community in Jerusalem grew in faith, understanding, and size, helps us understand what we are supposed to be about in our time. One thing that is very clear is that the first Catholics did not just have faith, they had expectant faith. They certainly believed in Jesus like we do. They believed in heaven and hell like we do. They believed in the Eucharist and the power of baptism like we do. What they believed that we might not is that Jesus is, in fact, ACTIVE in the world. They expected Jesus to act, to heal, and to change hearts. This most evident in how they prayed and preached. The Apostles talked about Jesus as one who will act now for the good of His people. The trick is that He wants to work in us and through us, not independent of us. That means we might need to put ourselves out there in prayer and run the risk of looking foolish. Peter and the Apostles were never not knowing with certainty that anything in particular would happen. They knew that Jesus desired to heal, strengthen and convert hearts. Knowing that, though, guaranteed nothing. The same is true for us. We need to be bold in our prayer. We need to be bold in attesting to what God has done for us. The Acts of the Apostles is to inspire us to the same boldness of the Apostles.

Please note that I will be at drill next weekend. Please keep me and my fellow Soldiers in prayer.

Your brother in Christ,
Msgr. Chad Gion
