EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION “His Hour, your hour”

What might happen at Adoration?

As per Stuart Richard, you might get bored.

Know that an hour continually devoted to Him even though your mind may wander every few minutes you are still giving God the best gift you can- your time and your company. Amen!

“Can you not stay one hour with me?”

2019-20 BAA CAMPAIGN

The theme of the 2019 Bishop’s Annual Appeal, “God Makes Every Grace Abundant”, reminds us to place our trust in Him as we continue His work on earth by responding to the needs of others. The Appeal makes possible the many good works facilitated by the Office of Social Concerns and the Office of Marriage and Family Life, contributes to the education of our future priests and deacons, and supports the education of young people in their faith. These are just a few examples of the many ministries and programs supported by your gift to the Appeal. Together we can bring hope that can change lives. Your gift to the 2019 Bishop’s Annual Appeal is vital to the success of this diocesan-wide campaign. We are off to a good start toward our parish goal of $47,407.90. Thank you to all those families that have made a gift or pledge. If you have not yet made your gift to this year’s appeal, please consider doing so in the days ahead. Your gift will help to continue the vital work of the various ministries and services that reach so many in need. Please pray for the success of this year’s Appeal and remember no amount of giving is too small.

Notes from the Pastor

Any of you who were able to make it to the re-dedication and consecration of St. Mary, Mother of God Church last weekend, witnessed a most beautiful Mass. The symbolism of the anointing of the altar and the very walls of St. Mary by the bishop, spoke to each of us. This is a place of worship and prayer. Bishop Brennan was most kind, supportive and complimentary in his comments about the beauty and prayerful atmosphere present in our newly renovated church. It is up to each of us to do our part to make St. Mary Church a welcoming and prayerful place for all who enter.

Bishop Brennan was most comfortable meeting and greeting all those who came to the reception following Mass in the gym. From there he joined the clergy for a dinner in the rectory. It was a pleasure having him as our guest--he has a way of feeling right at home and so do all in his presence.

Chris Bartony is the BAA leader this year. He will address the congregation at each Mass. We always make our goal. Let's try to do it ASAP to honor our new and very energetic bishop.

Next Saturday, May 25th at 10:00 a.m. four young deacons from the Pontifical College Josephinum will be ordained to Holy Priesthood by Bishop Robert Brennan at St. Joseph Cathedral. Please pray for Deacons Brian R. Beal, Paul J. Brandimarti, Kyle A. Tennant and Christopher J. Yakkel. Pray for them now as they prepare, after they receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders and throughout their priestly lives.

I don't usually include much about the secular world but two great entertainers died this last week: Doris Day and Tim Conway. Two of the great entertainers whose family friendly and hilarious performances entertained generations. The best humor is the type that doesn't make you cringe every so often. May they rest in peace.

Thoughts about wills:

- 1) Make one and sign it. It will not cause your death. Talk to an attorney.
2) Choose worthy causes (including St. Mary's, Right to Life, and St. Vincent de Paul) and make the world a better place.
3) If you have some goodies to give away, give some of them while you are still alive and enjoy the happiness that you bring to others.
4) Eternity is forever. Earthly life is a blink. No created thing in this world will love you back. If you have spent many years collecting things, spend many years giving them away.

Congratulations to Saint Mary 8th grader, Brian Lynch, who received the Serra Award from Bishop Brennan last Sunday afternoon.

The Lord be with you!
Father Kevin F. Lutz

"Grand Old St. Mary's"

Saint Mary, Mother of God, Rededication May 12, 2019

Those who were present for the rededication on Sunday experienced a wonderful and moving event. The talks by Bishop Brennan and Father Lutz were especially moving. Looking back at the dedication of 1868, the rededication of 2019 was even more beautiful and memorable. An article from the Ohio State Journal of November 30, 1868 provides a pretty good description of the dedication of 1886.

"...the ceremonies commenced, Bishop Rosecrans officiating, assisted by Father Hemsteger and other Clergymen. The ceremonies inside were very impressive, and as the church was crowded to overflowing and hundreds standing outside, apparently joining in the service, the scene was a very peculiar one. A sermon in German had been announced, but this was omitted, Bishop Rosecrans making a few remarks in English instead. He thought the congregation should embrace the day as one of thanksgiving. The completion of the beautiful temple; the pleasant day; the presence of so many friends from abroad made it so. The building was grand and should be such as an offering to God. This was the true Catholic spirit to give the best to the Most High and ever resolve to do better."

The following is a list of the rededication Ministers of the Liturgy for our 2019 Rededication Mass: Most Reverend Robert J. Brennan, Bishop of the Diocese of Columbus, Father Kevin Lutz, Pastor, Msgr. John K. Cody, Father Emmanuel Abu Addai, Father Timothy Lynch, Father Daniel Olvera, Father Peter Totleben, OP. Deacon Michael Fulton, Deacon Alfonso Gamez, Deacon Justin Ward, Deacon Kyle Tennant. Seminarian Tyler Carter, Seminarian Tyler Fitzgerald, Seminarian Jacob Wilson, Seminarian Jacob Stinnett, Master of Ceremonies. David Larson, Sacristan. Paul Martello, Vimpae. Torch-bearers - David Flores, Sophia Glenn, Brian Lynch, Mason Phillips, Lane Vance, Zane Wickham, McKayla Znidarsic. Mystical Rose, Pray for us. Pray for vocations.
